California To Test FDR Prestige

HAM AN' EGG DEFEAT SEEN

BY JOHN (SKY) DUNLAP
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—(UP)—New Deal prestige, pensions and liberal-conservative issues today attracted national attention to California's spectacular election campaign which closes tomorrow.

Last minute electioneering emphasized these highlights:

1—The attempt of Democrat Culbert L. Olson to end the 45 year reign of Republican governors by defeating Gov. Frank P. Merriam.

2—Betting odds presaged defeat for the $30 every Thursday pension plan, the proposal for state support of unemployed over 50.

Test FDR Prestige

3—President Roosevelt's prestige was at stake with New Deal endorsement of Olson, Sheridan Downey and Ellis Patterson, Democratic nominees for governor, senator and lieutenant governor.

4—Conservative Republicans Merriam, Philip Bancroft and Dr. Walter Scott Franklin labeled the Democratic slate as "radical and red."

5—Reliable betting odds quoted Merriam and Bancroft at even money against Olson and Downey, with Dr. Franklin 10-7 over Patterson.

6—Labor fought on two fronts, seeking defeat of the labor union regulation initiative, proposition No. 1 on the ballot, and split on the John L. Lewis CIO endorsement of Olson and William L. Green AFL endorsement of Merriam.

GERMAN ENVOY TO PARIS SHOT BY JEW

PARIS, Nov. 7.—(UP)—A 17-year-old Polish Jew, angered by the deportation of Polish Jews from Germany, shot and seriously wounded a member of the German embassy staff today.

The youth, Herschel Fripel Grynztan, entered the embassy and demanded to see the ambassador, Count Johannes Von Welczek, apparently seeking to assassinate him. He said he was on a "divine mission" to avenge Jews who have been expelled from Germany.

Wounds Serious

The ambassador's secretary, Ernest Von Rath, was seriously wounded in the chest and lungs, the embassy announced later. He was taken to a clinic for an operation.

Grynztan was captured by embassy guards and taken to the Invalides police station where he was questioned about the motives for the attack. He told the authorities that he was born in Hanover, Germany and resented deeply the Nazi campaign against Jews.

He carried a Polish passport issued by the Paris Polish consulate general. The principal motive for the attack, according to the embassy, was the recent deportation of Polish Jews from Germany.

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Berlin newspapers published an account of the shooting at the Paris embassy without comment, under the headline, "Jewish Outrage." The official news agency said the embassy had asked for an investigation and did not suggest that France was responsible.

Parole Board To Hear Pleas

ANAHEIM, Cal., Nov. 7.—(UP)—The state parole board will meet next Saturday to consider applications for parole and fix terms of confinement of seven women confined to the California institution for women at Tehachapi.

Chief among those seeking paroles are Helen Willis Love and Burmah White of Los Angeles. Mrs. Love, who was restrained from legal use of the name "Love," was convicted of shooting her secret husband, Harry A. Love, on New Year's eve, 1936, in Santa Monica, and sentenced to a term of five years to life with the provision that she could make no application for parole for three years.

Mrs. White, widow of a slain bandit, Thomas White, was convicted on 11 counts of robbery and assault and sentenced to a term of 30 years to life on November 5, 1933. She was denied a parole in August, 1935.

STORM THREATENS
MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 7.—(UP)—A disturbance located about 100 miles north of Guantanamo Bay, Cuba was moving slowly westward, toward the Atlantic today, the federal hurricane warning system reported.

Soviets In War Threat

MOSCOW, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Klementi Voroshilov, war commissar, warned Japan and other potential enemies today that the Changkufeng incident in which Russian and Japanese forces clashed on the Manchukuo border last August was just a sample of what the Soviet forces are capable of if attacked.

Voroshilov addressed thousands massed in Red Square, celebrating the 21st anniversary of the revolution which put the Bolsheviks in power. More than 1,000,000 civilian demonstrators with banners paraded in the square.

Issues Warning

Using a Russian proverb, Voroshilov said:

"Gentlemen, which you got in the Changkufeng region are only

Jail Costa Mesan Who Shot His Young Wife

La Verne Holmes, 22, of 166 Twenty-Second street, Costa Mesa, was in county jail today charged with attempted murder, two counts of kidnapping and one count of burglary as the result of a wild ride through Orange county late Saturday night and the shooting of his terrified girl wife, Virginia Holmes, 16.

The girl, who made her home with her father, J. H. Brown, 633 South Shelton, following her separation from her husband, is in "good" condition today at Santa Ana Valley hospital and expected to recover from four bullet wounds.

A blood transfusion was given her yesterday to give her strength. She was shot through the breast once with a .33 caliber Iver Johnson revolver bullet, the bullet exiting through her forearm and once directly through the chest, near the heart. The second bullet exiting through her back.

Entered Through Window

Mrs. Holmes was visiting her friend, Miss Edmoney Gaines, Greenville, and others at the home of Marjorie Taylor, 1623 West Ninth street, Saturday night. Miss Taylor and Katherine Holmes had left the Taylor place to get a malt and Mrs. Holmes and Miss Gaines were in the living room of the locked house when they were suddenly startled by the appearance in the room of Holmes.

He admitted, officers said, that he had removed a window screen and crawled into the house. It had been his second visit to the place that night. He said he had wished to talk over financial matters concerning their daughter, Barbara Jean, born last June 15 prematurely.

Taken For Ride

We had the doors locked and all of a sudden LaVerne appeared in front of us," Miss Gaines told officers. "He asked us to go for a

Candidates End Drives

Today, at election eve, local candidates were making their final swing about Orange county for eleventh-hour votes, and major state party organizations both issued prediction of victory at the polls tomorrow.

Orange county will vote on two major judgeships, the offices of district attorney and sheriff, and two assembliesmen, so far as local candidates go, in addition to several other offices in the second and fifth districts. There are contests for justice of the peace in Anaheim and Orange townships, and for constable in Anaheim and Seal Beach townships.

In the contest for sheriff, Logan Jackson, the incumbent, and Constable J. L. Elliott, of Santa Ana, were in the home stretch, while

Black Raps Ruling In Citrus Dispute

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Associate Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black today justifiably assailed his colleagues on the bench for invading the rights of state legislature in a dissent delivered on the first opinion day of the court's 1938-39 session.

Black, whose vigorous and often lone dissents marked his first year on the high tribunal, asserted today that his colleagues erred in today's ruling involving a Florida law requiring the word "Florida" to be embossed on all containers of Florida citrus products.

Defer Rulings

The dissent marked an otherwise dull court day, in which the high tribunal deferred rulings on three major cases involving the proposed child labor amendment, the National Labor Relations board and the Kansas City stockyards rate litigation. The court, earlier, agreed to review a new phase of the congressional resolution invalidating gold clauses in private obligations.

Black's dissent in the citrus case asserted his associates were in error in instructing a U. S. district court in Florida to hear oral arguments attacking validity of the labeling laws.

Rule Against Court

The majority, in a per curiam opinion delivered by Chief Justice Hughes, ruled that a three judge Southern Florida federal court was in error in dismissing the attack, filed by a group of citrus products packers.

In his dissent, Black said that the bill had been introduced in the Florida legislature, and was considered by a special joint legislative committee for six weeks, and approved by a vote of 24 to 1 in the Senate and 70 to 0 in the house.

"The cause is remanded for the court below to determine whether

Desert Wind Whips County; Crops Hit

The worst desert wind since October, 1935, today had blown most of its force after bringing thousands of dollars in property damage to the county and threatening the avocado crop with serious loss and damaging thousands of orange trees and scattering the coming citrus crop.

Starting with a wild flurry shortly after 8 p. m. Saturday, an estimated 45 mile an hour gale lashed at trees and telephone and light equipment without cessation for nearly 24 hours.

See Compensation

Orange and walnut growers today took an optimistic view of the storm and county agricultural officials were of the opinion that the resultant rise in prices will approximately compensate for the loss of fruit.

Worst damage to growers was in the avocado crop, especially the Fuerte variety, that is just coming into bearing. County Agricultural Commissioner Dixon Tubbs today issued a warning against the sale of immature avocados.

"The agricultural code requires that all avocados at the time of picking shall contain not less than eight per cent oil by weight," Tubbs said, "and all growers are warned against selling of immature fruit."

Fire Threatens Town

Worst property damage in the county was a $25,000 fire that threatened the entire town of Yorba Linda and seriously burned one man. Roadway stands in several localities suffered severe damage, particularly in the Anaheim area. A huge plate glass window at the corner of Claudia and Center streets, Anaheim, was blown out and ornamental trees were badly stripped.

Rodney E. Bacon, division manager of the Southern California Edison company, today reported more than 200 calls of damage to company power lines but stated that "two weathered the storm in fine shape and had no major interruptions of service." C. I. McDonald, district manager for the Southern California Telephone company, reported that

MILLIONS TO GO TO POLLS

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(UP)—The general election campaign closes today with indications that in tomorrow's voting the Republican party may make its first important gains since 1928.

Political significance of Republican expansion will depend on how many offices are shifted to the G. O. P. and where.

The campaign ends with national leaders on both sides charging the other with Fascist potentialities. Racial and religious issues have become a factor in New York. So-called "funny-money" old age pension plans are real factors in many states.

47 States Vote

This election will take place in 47 states. Maine held its general election Sept. 12, electing a Republican governor and three Republican members of the house of representatives; no change.

Normal political barometer for off-year general elections is the turnover of seats in the house of representatives. The average off-year turn from the party in power since 1870 has been 11 per cent of total membership. If that figure prevails tomorrow the Democrats will lose 50 seats. Any loss substantially below 50 probably should be considered sub-normal and as indicating that the New Deal Democratic tide still is flowing strong and deep.

All Claim Victory

Republican hope for success tomorrow rests largely upon potential political effects of the 1937-38 depression, lower farm crop prices and continued large scale unemployment. The New Deal counter to G. O. P. charges of bad times is that the United States is enjoying the most stable and least artificial prosperity of any nation.

Everyone claimed victory was just around the corner. Works Progress Administrator Harry L. Hopkins back from a week abroad, the country, told President Roosevelt at Hyde Park, N. Y., that Michigan and California were safe for the New Deal.

Hint Third Term

From anti-Roosevelt quarters came suggestions that the President's Nov. 4 election broadcast contained a hint of third term plans.

The Dies committee of the house, investigating un-American activities greeted the campaign close with an inquiry into alleged Communist affiliations of officials in the Roosevelt administration. The committee has been rebuked by President Roosevelt for accepting testimony that New Deal Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan had been a "traitor" in his handling of sitdown strikes.

Democratic candidates this year probably will miss the impetus given the campaign by Mr. Roosevelt's personal activity in 1936. Some observers believe the President's general lack of success in the so-called "purge" directed against conservatives in scattered Democratic primaries indicated that he was less effective in behalf of others than in behalf of himself. But the 1934 Democratic general election record still stands—its upset precedent by increasing a majority party's congressional strength over the standings elected in the preceding presidential election year.

Farley Sees Win

From 1928 to the present the Republican trend has been down and the Democratic trend consistently up in both state and national elections.

U. S. WARNS WORLD OF DEFENSE POLICY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(UP)—The United States sped its vast rearmament program today to assure this country, or any country in the western hemisphere, adequate protection against foreign aggression.

The first public exposition of that policy was made by a state department official last night in a special radio address to Latin America, and rebroadcast in the United States. Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles reaffirmed the principles of the Monroe doctrine and, in effect, served notice on the world that the United States' defense program was preparation to preserve, if necessary, the new world nations "from any threat of attack."

Strong Policy

In recent weeks state department officials have contended that this country's foreign policy for the immediate future would deal primarily with increasing cooperation among the republics of North and South America.

That policy coincides with the naval building program, under way, greater air equipment and the reopening of long disused armament plants and naval yards.

Doctrine of Hatred

Welles' address was one of the regular weekly series of inter-American broadcasts designed to counteract German, Italian and Japanese propaganda similarly disseminated in South America.

He frankly warned that the United States does not expect world peace to continue if maintained on the present basis.

"... The doctrine of hatred is threatening civilization," he said.

"How can there be peace in the world... if the reign of law is to be replaced by the recurrent sanctification of sheer force, if national policies adopt as their objective the power construction project in the west. Hill, 73, died late Saturday at Pasadena, Calif., of a stroke.

A receptacle containing his ashes will be placed this week under a bronze plaque at the top of Roosevelt dam, which he designed and constructed as the first engineering achievement of his career.

Hill served as president of the American Society of Civil Engineers and was a consultant on the construction of Boulder, Coolidge, Elephant Butte, and Bonneville dams. He was also identified with reclamation and flood control projects, including the All-American canal, Fort Peck dam, and the Los Angeles flood control project.

Downey Quoted As Supporter Of $30 Every Thursday Plan

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Whether Sheridan Downey, Democratic candidate for United States Senator, openly endorsed the $30 every Thursday pension plan today had his supporters and opponents engaged in a heated last day battle before tomorrow's election.

The Democratic nominee yesterday appeared before a mass meeting of 24,000 "ham and egg" pension plan advocates in Hollywood and made a brief address.

The Los Angeles Times quoted "a stenographic report" of Downey's impromptu remarks which said, in part:

Urges Support

"I implore you to register your will and wish for human deliverance and the opportunity for youth, for new hope—particularly for the retired citizens of America—will be yours if you will all vote for that great measure, proposition No. 25."

The ham and egg pension plan is listed on the state ballot as proposition No. 25.

Members of British Royal Family To Visit Windsors

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(UP)—The first actual step toward restoration of normal relations between the Duke and Duchess of Windsor and the rest of Britain's royal family will occur on Armistice Day, sources close to Buckingham Palace reported today.

On that day the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, enroute home from Kenya colony, will visit Edward and his American-born wife in Paris—with the approval of King George and Queen Elizabeth.

Whether the visit means that some day the woman for whom Edward gave up the British throne will be accorded a place in the royal scheme of things was uncertain, but at least it was considered that plans for the visit were a first step toward restoring normal relations of the royal family with the duke and duchess.

Brush Fires Threaten Tijuana

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 7.—(UP)—Fire crews today reported a series of brush and grass fires under control after more than 2,000 acres had been burned over by eight scattered fires on both sides of the Mexican border.

Several homes and ranches were threatened by the flames which in some sections were fanned by a 50-mile wind. One house near Tijuana was destroyed early yesterday by a brush fire near the border town. No deaths or injuries were reported in any of the blazes.

Ensenada was clouded with a heavy pall of smoke by a fire which for a time threatened power and light facilities of the town. Dying winds aided firefighters to keep the blaze under control.

Plan Rites For Noted Engineer

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 7.—(UP)—Memorial services were planned here today for Louis C. Hill, 73, identified with nearly every major project in the power construction project in the west. Hill, 73, died late Saturday at Pasadena, Calif., of a stroke.

A receptacle containing his ashes will be placed this week under a bronze plaque at the top of Roosevelt dam, which he designed and constructed as the first engineering achievement of his career.

Prussian Prince Jailed by Nazis

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Prince Friedrich Leopold of Prussia has been sentenced to two years in prison on charges of immorality, the foreign press was informed today.

The trial in Moabit criminal court lasted several days.

Leopold is 43. He is great grandson of the Hohenzollern king of Prussia, Friedrich Wilhelm III. His family is a cadet branch of the Hohenzollern family, and thus he is a distant relative of former Kaiser Wilhelm.

Reveal Saunders, Not Paulson, Ordered Pamphlet

Testimony that the pamphlet, "Fools Rush In," printed in Los Angeles, was first ordered under the name of "Saunders," and that the name "J. M. Paulson," unidentified later, who ordered the printing, was later substituted, was given today in Santa Ana justice court by Robert H. Kerr, partner in the Vogue Composition company, Los Angeles.

The Vogue Composition company set the type for the pamphlet, according to Kerr and his partner, Herbert E. Heikes, who also testified today.

Robert Elliott, of the Los Angeles printing firm where the pamphlet was published, ordered the type set on August 12, and returned on August 20 to pay for the job, said Kerr. Elliott, he said, remarked that instead of "Saunders," the customer's name should be "Paulson."

Lionel J. Rancette, bookkeeper for the Vogue firm, testified that Elliott had paid him for the type-setting job, with two $100 bills and smaller change.

The grand jury was not in session today, thus verifying rumors that no report of its investigation of "Fools Rush In" would be filed until after tomorrow's election.

Blame Saboteurs For Ship Blast

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 7.—(UP)—District Attorney Earl Warren of Alameda county said today there was no doubt "criminal action was involved" in the explosion that blasted a five-foot hole in the hull of the Nazi steamer Vancouver at Oakland estuary last Thursday.

Warren said his investigation over the weekend showed conclusively that the explosion, which injured four of the Vancouver's seamen in the engine room, came from outside the ship.

German Consul-General Baron Manfred Von Killinger charged the explosion was the work of saboteurs and said he suspected "anti-Nazi."

"There is no doubt that criminal action involved in the explosion of the Nazi Steamer Vancouver," Warren said.

Scores Battle Oil Plant Fire

RICHMOND, Cal., Nov. 7.—(UP)—A spectacular oil fire in the Richmond Point Standard Oil company plant was under control today after a stubborn two-hour fight.

Oil in an open sewer ignited at a break in the pipe and flamed half a mile downstream until it reached a wooden separator, used in reclaiming oil from water.

Whistles sounding a general company alarm brought out scores of company employees who aided in keeping the flames under control so that at no time, company officials said, were the giant tanks of oil and gas in the plant endangered.

Damage was confined mainly to the separator and it was thought it would not run to more than $10,000.

Hopkins Sees Bourbon Victory

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 7.—(UP)—President Roosevelt received a detailed political report today from Works Progress Administrator Harry Hopkins who assured the chief executive that Democratic candidates would be elected to grow in the state through which he passed en route east from California.

Hopkins, acting as Mr. Roosevelt's political "scout," said he was sure Gov. Frank Murphy would be reelected in Michigan, and the Democratic ticket would triumph in California. He predicted defeat of the "ham and egg" pension plan in California.

Tomorrow Mr. Roosevelt and members of his family will vote in the little yellow town hall of Hyde Park.

Tragedy Mars Scout Outing

SAN RAFAEL, Calif., Nov. 7.—(UP)—A weekend outing of Sacramento Boy Scouts ended tragically today with the death in Cottage hospital of Robert Downs, 17, a junior assistant scoutmaster. Downs, on an outing near Muir Beach with 36 Sacramento youths, slipped from a ledge and fell 50 feet to rocks below. He died of a fracture of the skull shortly after being brought here for treatment.

Bicycle Rider Killed

CORCORAN, Cal., Nov. 7.—(UP)—Fifteen-year-old Eugene Todd's bicycle ride ended in his death last night when he was struck by an automobile driven by Arthur Thomas, 20. Both were residents of Corcoran. Coroner's deputies investigated the accident.

FIVE INJURED IN CAR MISHAPS

Five persons suffered minor injuries in week-end traffic accidents, according to police and hospital reports of five mishaps.

Mrs. Lois M. Perry, 45, Costa Mesa, was treated for elbow injury at county hospital following an accident last evening at the intersection of Wright street and Wintersburg road, two miles east of Wintersburg, when her car and one driven by Juan Rivera, 21, Huntington Beach, collided. Ascertained excessive speed by Rivera was blamed for the collision.

On Grand at the intersection of La Habra and Buena Park roads a mile north of Buena Park Saturday night, Wilma Caldwell, 18, Seal Beach, and Francis Williamson, 18, Long Beach, were injured when a car driven by Spencer Finler, 23, USS Chester, San Pedro, went out of control at a viaduct.

Mrs. Rena M. Rice Called By Death

Mrs. Rena Mattie Rice, 70, who for the last 15 years had resided on Holt avenue in Tustin, died early today at the home of her son, H. L. Rice, of Huntington Park, following an illness that had lasted for several days.

Mrs. Rice was born in Chillicothe, Ohio. In addition to the son, she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Edna Diamond, Tustin; two sisters, Mrs. Frank McClure of Merrill, Ohio, and Mrs. Hattie Davis of Tunewell, Ill., and four grandchildren.

The body was taken to Winkler's memorial chapel, where time of funeral services will be announced later.

"IT'S A PASS!"

FIVE HELD AS DRUNK DRIVERS

Five persons were booked at county jail during the week-end on drunk driving charges while 17 others were booked on charges of intoxication, records show.

Vandever C. Barbre, 50, Atwood, was arrested last night in front of 2209 North Main, on drunk driving charge after his car collided with two other cars one of which contained Dr. James Farrage of Santa Ana.

Tells of Collision

The doctor pronounced Barbre "very drunk," sent him to jail. Officer Ernest Zimmerman made the arrest after Barbre's car collided with one operated by Charles Cunningham, Route 3, Santa Ana, bruising Mrs. Madge Cunningham, his wife, on the hip, then struck one driven on the opposite side of the street by Marion S. Reiber of Orange county hospital. Dr. Farrage was riding with him.

Others arrested and booked at county jail on drunk driving charges include Manuel Ruiz, 22, Delhi, by Officer Burnette Lane, of Santa Ana; Ider Witsoe, Oceanview, by Highway Patrol Officer Horace Inge; R. Brown, Santa Ana, by Highway Officer Vernon Barnhill, and Santos Cardenas, Santa Ana, by Fullerton officers.

HUGE SAVING MADE IN THREE WELLS BY S. A. V. I. EXPERTS

A direct saving of $2,400 a year for the next 30 years or a total of $72,000 has been made on wells No. 20, 21 and 22 of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation company, according to a report filed today by Chief Engineer L. E. Blakeley and approved by President C. A. Palmer and the board of directors.

Completion of work done in salvaging and bringing into efficient operation all three of the wells represents a year of work on the three projects.

Perennials Are Not Hard To Grow

There is no garden operation which saves money faster than growing one's own perennials. When plants are purchased they are relatively expensive because of the long growing period, the intensive care they have had and the large percentage of loss.

Plants have never been grown successfully in large scale operations because of the limited area over which they can be distributed satisfactorily and the high cost of packing such fragile subjects for shipment.

The gardener who grows his own pays only for the seed. The task of caring for the plants and observing their growth is a fascinating recreation, if he is a true garden fan.

Among the perennials with which beginners will have little difficulty are columbines, dianthus, delphiniums, gaillardias, coreopsis, pollyhocks, pyrethrum, sweet williams, veronica, spicata and violas.

Celebrities' Faces Peep From Vine It's Pumpkin Art

MADISON, O.—(UP)—Pumpkins resembling Clark Gable, President Roosevelt, Myrna Loy and other celebrities, are the home-town products of John Cz, a truck farmer.

Cz has perfected a process whereby he grows pumpkins with contours similar to those of human faces and heads. He plants a hybrid pumpkin seed, then fits a soft mask over the young pumpkin. The vegetable, while growing, assumes the shape and features of the mask. The mask finally drops off.

Fred Allen and Jack Benny are two others whose features have been perpetuated in pumpkins.

CALIFORNIA VOTERS ASKED TO DECIDE ON 25 PROPOSITIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—(UP)—California voters will decide tomorrow whether 25 initiative and referendum measures on the ballot shall be enacted into law.

Most controversial is the $307,000 pension plan, termed "ham and eggs for Californians" by its promoters. Appearing as No. 25 on the ballot, the initiative requires the state to issue retirement compensation warrants, and redemption stamps to be affixed thereon weekly to redeem warrants annually.

Of almost equal importance is No. 1, the labor regulation initiative. The rank and file of labor is fighting the plan as a shackle on labor unions and restriction of workers, provides a system of regulation for labor unions, and recognizes the right of employees to strike and bargain collectively. Bakers contend it will restore peace in California labor.

Third in importance

Third in importance is No. 20, the repeal of the sales tax but known as the single tax. It repeals limitation on ad valorem property taxes for state appropriations and repeals sales, use and private car taxes. Defeated repeatedly in California, the measure is opposed by business, real estate and government agencies.

Brief descriptions of other measures follow:

No. 2, prohibits use of impounded animals for scientific purposes. No. 3, requires motor vehicle funds fuel tax to be used exclusively for public streets and highways. No. 4, provides five full time salaried commissioners to administer highway, highway patrol and traffic safety matters. No. 5, controls offshore sardine reduction plants. No. 6, declares insurance companies and associations shall be taxed on certain business subsequent to Dec. 31, 1937.

Color Photo Group To Meet Tonight

Another meeting of camera enthusiasts interested in taking pictures in color will be held this evening at 8 p. m., at the Taylor Radio shop, 116 South Sycamore street, Santa Ana. It was announced today by H. Mel Head, head of the club recently organized.

The club, he said, has obtained motion pictures showing the story and technique of the manufacture and principles of lens; these pictures will be shown at the meeting. A professional photographer will be present to explain the pictures. Those attending the meeting were requested to bring, if possible, color pictures, either slide or uncut film, without limiting the pictures to exceptional "shots." Anyone interested in taking color pictures was invited to attend.

YORBA LINDA THREATENED BY $25,000 FIRE

1 HURT AS WIND SPREADS BLAZE

Fanned by a strong desert wind, a fire which broke out early Sunday morning threatened the entire town of Yorba Linda before it was finally extinguished. One man, Carl Steffen, had a narrow escape from death. Loss was estimated at $25,000.

Steffen suffered second degree burns on his left shoulder and face in an unsuccessful attempt to move his car from an adjoining shed. The fire was discovered by Herbert Warren, who assisted Steffen in escaping from the burning building, where he had living quarters.

Gets Fast Start
The fire started from an unknown cause in the rear of the building occupied by the Yorba Linda Table Supply company and was well under way before the alarm was turned into the State Forestry department. The building, owned by H. A. Casparie, and occupied by J. B. Shelton and P. E. Roberson as tenants, was a complete loss, the building being valued at $10,000 and the stock at $8000.

The flames quickly spread to and destroyed the feed store and warehouse back of the market and to the adjoining building on the south owned by W. J. Burd, occupied by Topsy's Beauty parlor and Zim's dress shop.

Sweep's Other Structures
Other losses included the tool shed and garage of the Yorba Linda Water company and home and furnishings of Fay Young, all located on Olinda street. Damaged by the flames were the offices of the water company, a residence owned by Young, Yorba Linda apartments, roof of packing house, garages and other small buildings, all frame structures and the E. R. Walker building, which is of brick construction and which kept the fire from spreading south.

Flaming embers were blown over 700 feet by the wind but losses were kept at a minimum through the co-operation of a hundred fire fighters. It was estimated that losses would have been over $150,000 without the quick action of the firemen and an abundance of water.

Firemen Praised
Joe Scherman, of Orange, state forest ranger, directed the fire fighters. Seven state and county fire trucks were on the scene, three from Yorba Linda with John Tomblin of the State Forestry department and Fred Closest, fire chief of the Yorba Linda volunteers, in charge; two trucks from Orange, with Rollo Hazeltine, assistant ranger, directing; one from Midway City and one from Costa Mesa. Chief Percy Owens of Buena Park, Chief Joe Pauchon of Placentia and Chief Ellis of Brea, with their crews assisted.

Citizens praised the work of the firemen in the face of a strong wind which handicapped their efforts. Deputies directed by Sheriff Logan Jackson patrolled the district.

3 STANTON BUILDINGS DESTROYED BY FIRE
Three small buildings located at Stanton were destroyed by fire.

Spy Witness

Like a scene from a movie thriller was the picture of sinister secret agents exchanging code messages painted by Eleanor C. Boehme, above, witness in the trial of alleged German spies in New York Federal Court. She told of visiting Kate Moog Busch, another witness, who, on their first meeting, slipped into her palm as they shook hands, a book of matches. Examining it later, she said, she found the inside covered with writing in code.

Striking Dance

Striking workers of a New York phonograph record company made some kind of record for dizzy picket lines when they went jitterbugging, as pictured above, shagging up and down the sidewalk before their former employer's establishment. A merry time was had until police swunk into action and stopped the swinging couples.

JUSTICES HOLD ENVIOUS POST IN ELECTION; WITHOUT RIVALS

Candidates for chief and associate justices of the state supreme court, and associate justice of the court of appeals, occupy a position on tomorrow's ballot that is envied by other candidates. They have no opponents.

Under a constitutional amendment adopted by the people in 1934, the former method of filling seats of the higher judiciary by contests between candidates was discarded, and now the voters pass upon the question of retaining or removing the incumbent. It is, in effect, the same as a recall election, except that there is no recall candidate.

By Appointment
In the event of a justice being removed by this method of voting, the vacancy thus occurring is filled by appointment of the governor, as when any mid-term vacancy occurs. Such appointment extends to the next ensuing election when the appointee comes before the people on the question of retaining or removing him. Such appointments by the governor, it is said, are made from a list of available jurists, selected and certified by a state committee which includes the chief justice of the supreme court and other officials.

Saturday night. The structures were occupied by Japanese and the total loss was estimated at $1200. Three other buildings were saved by the Midway City firemen, who answered the call. A brush fire at Costa Mesa called out the fire crews last night. A half acre of ground was burned over.

IRENE BRELJE, H. HARMS WED

OLIVE, Nov. 7.—Softly lighted by slender white tapers and with the altar banked with palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums St. Paul's Lutheran church was the setting last night for the wedding of Miss Irene Brelje, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brelje, 402 Henrietta Place, Orange, and Henry Harms, son of Mrs. Mathilda Harms, of Atwood.

Solos Presented
Proceeding the ceremony, Robert Kreidt sang "O Perfect Love" and "Prayer," with Miss Margaret Kreidt at the organ. Lohengrin's Wedding March was played by A. W. Schmid. The service was read by the pastor of the church, the Rev. E. H. Kreidt, and the wedding was on the same date as that of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Emilia Brelje. The bride entered the church with her father, proceeding to the altar down the center aisle where each pew was marked with bouquets of pom-pom chrysanthemums. She was very lovely in a Princess gown of white satin fashioned with a long train over which swept the soft folds of her tulle veil fastened in a coronet effect. Her gown was inset with real lace and the neckline of pearls she wore was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried lilies of the valley and orchids in a beautiful arrangement.

Sister Maid of Honor
Miss Mathilda Brelje, sister of the bride, in silver-blue satin and carrying a bouquet of pink rosebuds, was maid of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Walter Blehner, Miss Hilda Kraus and Miss Lorraine Lentz. All wore dream-rose frocks and carried pom-pom chrysanthemums. Miss Marian Jergens was junior maid of honor and she was becomingly frocked in yellow taffeta, carrying yellow sweet peas and blue delphinium, with a spray of the same flowers in her hair. Patricia Ann Steele, in a yellow taffeta frock was flower girl and she carried a basket of yellow rose petals. Best man was Eldon Roddeck and ushers were Walter Boehner, Wilbur Wranicis and Oliver Brelje. Charles Harms was junior best man.

In Blue Crepe
The bride's mother was in teal blue crepe and wore a corsage of deep rosebuds. Mrs. Brelje, mother of the bridegroom, was in wine crepe and also wore a red rosebud corsage. A wedding supper at the Orange Woman's club followed the ceremony and each table was centered with three white candles and a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Otto Roddeck was toastmaster and a program of music included vocal solos, "Indian Love Call" and "Because" by Robert Kreidt, with Miss Margaret Kreidt at the piano, Carrol Jean Harms and Mary Ann Lentz with Mrs. John Harms at the piano, sang "Dream of Home" and "I Love You."

Walter Brelje gave electric guitar numbers and Milford Brelje, piano selections. An address was given by the Rev. Mr. Kreidt and toasts by A. W. Schmid, Emil Roddeck, W. S. Lentz, Bruce Anson and Dick Blankmeyer. The bride cut the beautifully decorated cake. For traveling the bride donned a black suit with spice accessories. The young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Carlsbad Caverns, New Mexico, O'Builder Dam and Grand Canyon. They will establish their home at 539 Van Bibber street, Orange.

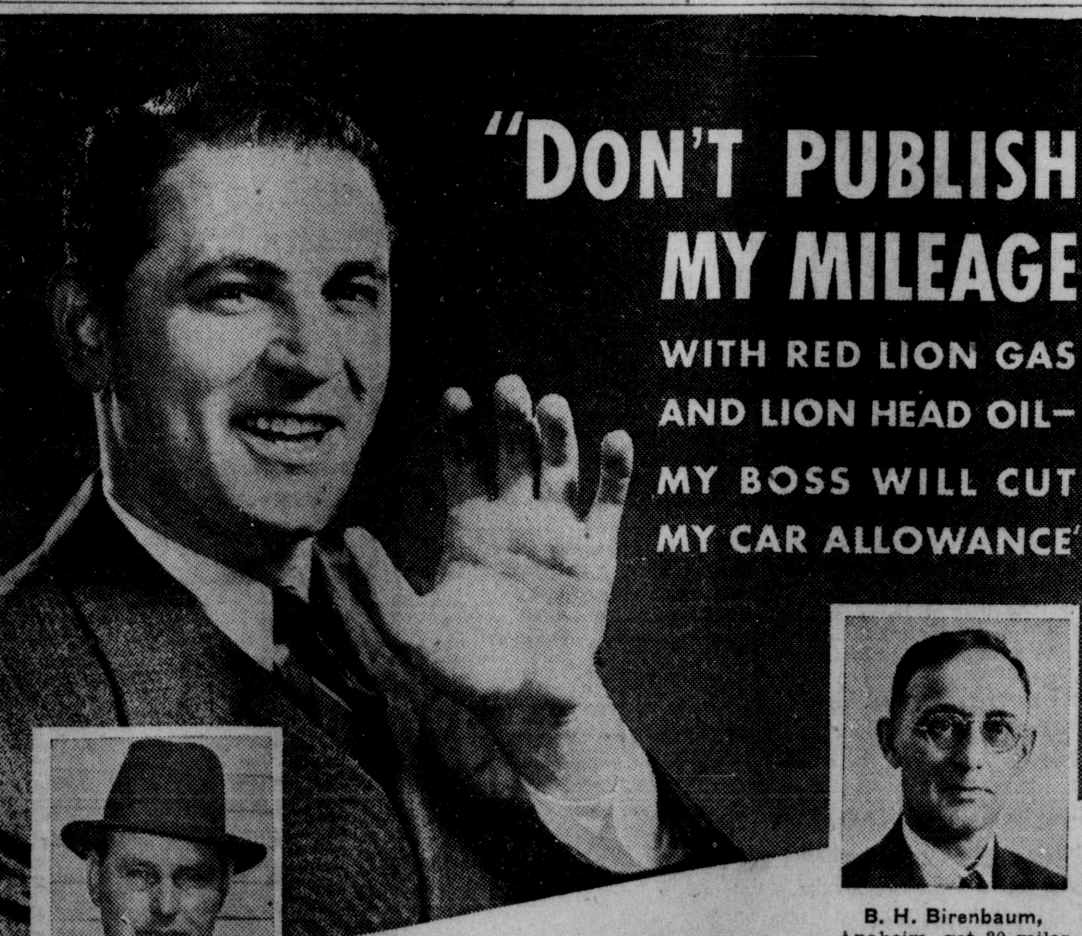

Children Attend Party In Tustin

TUSTIN, Nov. 7.—The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Watson, Yorba street, was the setting for a gay party shared recently by 25 children of Miss Mary Durbin's eighth grade at Tustin Grammar school.

Helen Grigsby Doss, a member of the creative writing class has just sold an article on Deanna Durbin to the "American Girl." The editor has also requested further material, in particular an article on Judy Garland. John Bergen, another member, has won one of True Story's $1,000 prizes. Many small article sales have also been reported.

The public speaking class which meets at Lathrop on Monday has been moved to Room 33.

Please note the following: Wednesday evening of this week in the Little Theater at the high school Mr. John C. Duvall will lead a discussion on "What Next in Europe?"

Thursday evening of this week in the Willard auditorium Calvin Flint, Dean of the Junior college, will begin a series of travel lectures. "The Orient" is the subject for this week.

Thursday, November 17, Miss Vanche Plumb of the Willard Junior high school faculty, will discuss "Birds of Our Community."

Monday evening, November 14, Mr. J. Gregory Conway will give the second in his series of lectures on flower arrangement. Next Monday's discussion will deal with "Japanese Flower Arrangement."

Junior College Loan Fund. Each year the students in evening high school classes are given the opportunity to contribute to the junior college loan fund. This is a fund which is loaned to junior college students, usually in small amounts to enable them to complete their courses. Combined with the junior college loan fund is the student body fund, which is used to defray necessary expenses at the annual banquet and on other occasions. The contributions are divided fifty-fifty between the two funds. This matter will be presented to all the classes during the week beginning Nov. 14.

CONDITION UNCHANGED
EL MODENA, Nov. 7.—The condition of the Rev. J. S. Sorenson, who underwent an emergency operation at St. Joseph hospital Thursday afternoon was reported unchanged this morning. He is said to be in a critical condition. The Rev. Mr. Sorenson, who is pastor of the Friends church, had not been feeling well for sometime and suffered a collapse Thursday noon.

Soviets In War Threat

flowers. Betties will be next. Any arrogant enemy, no matter where he pokes his nose, will get them. "Let the enemy remember that we will always confine our action to our territory." Voroshilov described Changkufeng as not war but a test of force made by "our nervous and stupid neighbor who dreamed to seize part of our territory easily, quickly and cheaply." Josef V. Stalin heard the speech.

As Stalin mounted the parapet of Lenin's tomb to review the traditional parade, he raised his cap to the diplomatic section. There was a parade of infantry and cavalry, but no attempt at a great military show.

The celebration was begun last night with a speech by Vacheslav Molotov, president of the council of people's commissars.

Purge Revealed
Molotov's speech, a broadside by Georgi Dimitroff, secretary general of the Communist International, and disclosure of a new purge in the Russian fleet, marked the temper of the Russian leadership as the country entered on its third decade as a Socialist Soviet Republic—defiance of the totalitarian powers, suspicion of Great Britain, and a determination to rout out every highly placed official who does not owe to the party line.

Molotov, accusing Germany of instigating the Russian-Japanese clash in the far east last summer in order to test Russia's strength, and took occasion to denounce Charles A. Lindbergh for the American aviator's reported assertion that Russia's air force was weak and Germany's overwhelmingly strong. He interpreted the Munich agreement as a victory for Germany and a victory of Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy over Czechoslovakia. He said Russia had been ready to aid Czechoslovakia but that France and Britain sacrificed Czechoslovakia in their own interests.

PEANUTS SURPRISE CROP
TISHOMINGO, Okla. (UP)—One Tishomingo farmer was helped by a federal allotment which more than halved his cotton crop. He planted the superfluous acreage to peanuts, and said they brought him more money than he formerly made from cotton.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. That may be relieved now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germs and phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles due to common colds hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund your money. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

ELECTION BOARDS WARNED TO POST RESULTS OF ELECTION

Attention of election boards serving at tomorrow's election today was directed to the law requiring them to post election results prominently on the outside of the polling place.

Californians To Test New Deal

The ballot have provided the chief controversy. No. 20, the repeal of the sales tax, but commonly known as the single tax, has been fought largely by the same business and governmental groups opposing the pension issue. No. 1, the labor initiative, would regulate picketing, control unions, define boycotting and recognize the right of employees to strike and bargain collectively.

Claim Haight Support
One uncertainty of the campaign is the effect of Raymond L. Haight withdrawing from his progressive party campaign for governor. Haight assailed both Merriam and Olson, but each claimed a majority. Robert Noble, founder of a $25 every Monday pension scheme, was not a major contender as the Commonwealth nominee for governor.

Costa Mesan Shoots Wife, 16

Charles Wolford and Officers C. V. Adams, L. C. Rogers, J. B. Stevenson and Clyde Flower have been conducting the investigation. Kidnaping is punishable by death, officers said.

Deputy Sheriffs Walt Dungan and A. W. Rodabaugh were called upon to assist in the investigation of the shooting since the shooting occurred in unincorporated territory.

The young wife was granted a divorce from Mesan last Friday, after filing a complaint charging cruelty, in which she declared that Holmes had threatened her life on October 14, and told her she would never live to see her baby grow up. He told her he would run away with the baby, she said. His abuse caused premature birth of the baby, she alleged.

She also told of having her eye blacked and her hair pulled by her husband. They married at Corona last February 19, and separated on October 13, her complaint stated. The court granted her custody of the daughter, Barbara Jean, four months old, and awarded her $10 per month for the child's support, besides $50 attorney fees and $15 costs.

Holmes, 22, is a native of Nebraska, and came to Orange county 15 years ago.

phone company, called 13 extra men to stand by for emergency calls and reported a total of 269 out of service cases. All service was restored within a few hours. Worst damage came when a large sycamore tree in Tustin blew down, breaking connections and blocking traffic.

Wires Down
Santa Ana police investigated more than two dozen calls of wind damage or threats of damage, F. W. Lockhart, of 2002 Oak street, reported a live wire down on St. Andrews street between Cypress and Orange streets. Park Superintendent Dale Griggs was called for numerous cases of broken windows while several cases of broken windows were reported.

Harbormaster Thomas Bouchy today reported no damage in the harbor district of the Newport-Balboa area. The crashing of the 15,000 ton oil tanker Agwiworld into 22 yachts and three water taxis in the Long Beach harbor causing $30,000 damage was the worst coastal damage in the Southland, according to Associated Press reports. The huge vessel snapped her bow mooring under pressure from the desert wind and swung broadside into the anchored pleasure crafts.

A short circuit in electric wires above a palm tree in the 700 block on West Palmyra avenue in Orange was held responsible for a call made to the fire department last night. Sparks from the burning tree were carried to the porch roof of a nearby home and burned a small hole in the roof. Lights were out in a number of homes in the vicinity for a short time.

A new derrick of the Imperial Oil and Gypsum company was blown down across Eureka avenue northwest of Yorba Linda shortly before 11 p. m. Saturday. Red lanterns were posted at the derrick pending its removal.

Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg today pointed to the successful protection of many orchards by the 1,000 miles of windbreaks in the county. "In unprotected areas the crop damage to avocados reached more than 25 per cent," Wahlberg said, "while in the protected groves the damage was relatively nothing."

"On the whole, the citrus crop came off fairly well," Wahlberg said. "In the eastern part of the county there was considerable green fruit loss but the rise in prices will follow as a result of the crop loss will closely compensate for the fallen fruit."

Warns Nations
He paid tribute to the "good neighbor" policy, emphasized the "outstanding importance" of the inter-American conference to be held at Lima, Peru, Dec. 9, and praised the trend toward increased cooperation among the new world democracies. He warned other nations that:

"As a nation we will assure ourselves that we are in a position to defend ourselves from all aggression from whatever source it may arise, and to be prepared to join with our fellow democracies of the new world in preserving the western hemisphere safe from any threat of attack."

the legislative requirement that canes and labels be truthfully marked is arbitrary, unreasonable, capricious, unjust or harsh," Black said.

"This makes it necessary for the court to weigh and pass upon the relative judgment, poise and reasoning ability of the one legislator who voted against the law, as contrasted with the 94 legislators and the governor who favored it."

New Appeal Possible
Black asserted that even after the district court holds further hearings in the matter, it may be appealed again to the Supreme Court and "in the meantime, the state of Florida is forced to litigate the validity of its newly enacted law."

"The important consequences of this remand raise far more than mere questions of procedure," Black said.

"Accordingly, it becomes increasingly important to protect state governments from needless expensive burdens and suspensions of their laws incident to federal court injunctions issued on allegations that show no right to relief."

Black said he believed the principle embodied in the majority opinion would not lead to "salutary results."

He has handled criminal cases commonly called high misdemeanors, which superior court also hears if they originate in other townships, where the local courts do not have jurisdiction. This then is a type of case which Santa Ana Justice Court, as well as Superior Court, hears.

He has handled cases involving domestic relations.

He has handled cases involving estates and guardianships.

He has handled cases involving special district affairs.

He has handled cases involving municipal law.

He has handled cases of equity.

He has handled cases involving public officers.

He has handled cases where there were highly involved contracts. And some of the most involved of these contracts were drawn by certain attorneys who now oppose Judge Morrison.

He has handled many of all these types of cases, over and over.

Judge Morrison's judicial distinction is not limited to Orange County. He represented Justice Courts of California on a committee appointed by the state Judicial Council, which included members of the Judicial Council, the State Supreme Court, District Court of Appeal, Superior Courts, Municipal and Justice Courts. This committee decided that justice courts were of such importance that only attorneys should be eligible to preside over them.

Judge Morrison is an attorney. He has been on the bench 14 years. He offers the voters of Orange County the only judicial experience there is available for department two of the Superior Court.

national politics. Chairman James A. Farley of the Democratic national committee, who called the turn precisely in the 1936 Presidential campaign, today predicted "another Democratic sweep."

But Farley and other Democratic leaders concede a net loss of congressional seats to the Republicans. Farley's estimate of the probable shift of house seats is under 30. Chairman Joseph W. Martin of the Republican congressional campaign committee predicted the G. O. P. would gain 80 seats, Farley called that estimate absurd.

The Gallup poll, notably close to the facts in 1936 but confronted with a far different forecast problems today, made a week end prediction that the Republican party would pick up 80 to 75 seats.

Predict G. O. P. Gain
Estimates of Senate gains range from two to seven. Party leaders are in dispute whether Republicans or Democrats will come off tomorrow with the grand prizes of election day governorships in such states as New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Ohio, Michigan and California. With the exception of California, those states have Democratic governors now.

Between 30,000,000 and 40,000,000 persons probably will vote tomorrow. The contests range from the perfunctory ratification of Democratic primary nominees in the Solid South and some border states to close and spectacular races confined largely to the great industrial areas.

Richer, most populous New York state is front and center in the picture. Republicans are charged here with raising religious and racial issues and Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, drafted by the New Deal for a fourth term, has protested sharply.

He acknowledged the fact that his Republican rival, Thomas E. Dewey, the 36 year old racket buster, had repudiated such methods.

G.O.P. Hopes Boom
Mr. Roosevelt says Dewey is too young to be governor. The fundamental issue in New York is New Deal against the G.O.P. and straws in the wind are skyrocketing Republican hopes.

BEET INDUSTRY PLANS MAPPED

Approximately 170,000 acres will be allotted to individual producers in California factory districts for 1939 sugar beet production under the sugar act program through co-operation of a growers' review committee and sugar beet processors.

were devised as a result of an understanding reached at meetings held recently between the growers' committee and sugar beet processors of the state, and W. B. Parker, state executive officer for the AAA. These plans include early notification to individual producers of their 1939 sugar beet acreage allotments and completion of details of contracting for next season.

Additional Acreage
Following a survey of all sugar beet acreage throughout the state, individual producers will receive '39 allotments on the basis of their past sugar beet history and their ability to produce a 1939 sugar beet crop. During the next two weeks, all growers who produced sugar beets in 1936, 1937 or 1938 will be contacted by sugar company representatives.

Producers may make requests for additional acreage or appeals from acreage allotments between November 15 and 20 to the growers' review committee. Such appeals may be made in writing to the committee.

David W. Mann, of Brea, former superior court trial juror convicted of a morals offense involving a Negro, today had been placed on probation for five years, with a sentence of one year in county jail attached by Superior Judge H. G. Ames.

Newman Golden, 18, the Negro involved, was convicted of grand theft from the person of Mann and was yesterday sentenced by Judge G. K. Scovel to the Preston School of Industry at Ione.

"Not Hitler's Girl Friend"

Loni Reifensahl, the tall shapely brunette frequently rumored to be Adolf Hitler's "girl friend," arrived in New York aboard the Europa to deny to reporters that she was a close friend of the famed dictator. General Hugh S. JOHNSON Says

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Mr. Thurman Arnold, the newly appointed trust-buster of the Department of Justice, doesn't confine his philosophy of government to trust busting. In reorganizing our political and economic structure, he does not overlook religion. In a New York speech recently, he is reported to have said:

"Every organized state must have its established church, or as I have expressed it elsewhere, its folk-lore. That church must embody the fundamental truths and principles which give the state its greatness. . . . The fact that today the established church of the modern state is legal and economic, promising security for this life rather than for the hereafter, distinguishes us from the Middle Ages. The future life can no longer be offered as a substitute for economic misery in the living world."

Now it would be easy to get all heated up over this. It sounds like Hitler trying to set up his own pagan pan-German religion and to crush out existing forms of Judaism and Christianity. It sounds like the attempt of every appointed dictator to align a religion controlled by him with his regimented political system — to complete the subjugation of the people. It sounds as though it meant that the Third New Deal with its WPA, Social Security, AAA, etc., is the new established church and official religion. It seems to ignore the First Amendment to the Constitution which says, "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." In fact, it seems to compress in five sentences, a rat's nest of horrendous hob-goblins and outrageous assaults on the faith of millions.

I do not know Mr. Arnold personally. I wish I did. I suspect that he has an ample wit. I think all this sort of speaking is done in a sort of pious humor for the fun of stirring up the animals and hearing them howl.

But this is like a little cock-eyed jovial idiot playing with matches in a powder magazine. It is point number one in the dictatorship doctrine that the old-time religion is a sleeping potion that lulls the underprivileged by the false hope of some distant heaven when they ought to be on the barricades tearing hell out of the existing order to improve their lot on earth.

The ghoulish cruelty of this is its destruction of the consolations of religion to hundreds of millions of people, its assault on the charitable and kindly doctrines that have flowed from religion to make the world something more than an animalistic jungle, and finally the utter sterility of anything the cocksure anti-religionists offer to take the place of religion. They haven't produced anything but increasing misery and unemployment—the decline of decency and honor, the ascendancy of treachery and despotism—here and everywhere. Both Communism and Fascism are anti-religious and anti-Christ.

That they have nothing to propose except a rule by force and bloodshed was never more evident in the world than it is now—in Asia, in Europe—and threatening us today.

Man may have arisen from the lower animals but the thing that set him apart was that there was within him a germ of the divine intelligence which grew to fight and partly overcome that savage animalism from which he set out. Religion, and that almost alone, has nurtured that advance. Until something better appears, present world degradation still warns that "old things are best." We must always be alert to go forward—but it isn't wise to get

Your District Attorney has been written as follows:

WE QUOTE:

"We have been advised that in practically every county a large number of sample ballots are being returned by the post office, unclaimed. This means, apparently, that there are names on the Great Register that should have been removed. In addition, there are constant reports that fictitious addresses, false statements of residence and registrations in more than one county are common practices. And you undoubtedly know, as we do, of "graveyard votes" in former years, votes cast by unscrupulous individuals in the names of persons already dead."

THE FOLLOWING ACTIONS ARE FELONIES:

Fraudulent registration (Penal Code Sec. 42).

Causing or allowing fraudulent registration (Penal Code Sec. 42a.)

Voting more than once (Penal code Sec. 45.)

Tampering with ballots (Penal Code Sec. 45.)

Interference with others voting (Penal Code Sec. 45.)

Attempting to vote when not qualified (Penal Code sec. 46).

The results of the life saving and water safety instructor's class held at Huntington Beach high school from October 10 to 14 by Harold Terwilliger, national field representative for this service, have been received from the National Red Cross by Mrs. Laura R. Warren, executive secretary, Orange county council.

Those who successfully completed the course and have been appointed instructors in the Santa Ana chapter are Margaret Glenn, Wayne A. Lauri and Marion Parsons of Santa Ana; Edwin Elliott and Delbert F. Higgins of Huntington Beach; Jesse Haxton of Garden Grove; J. Martin Clark of Balboa.

Others Are Named
George Richardson and James A. Daum of Orange who will give instruction in the Orange chapter. Flannetta Rheed, Fullerton high school, is an instructor for Northern Orange county chapter, and Dr. Charles E. Westerhout, Brea, who has been appointed to teach in three chapters, Northern Orange county, Anaheim and Orange.

Grafton L. Pauls of the Long Beach chapter also completed the course.

James Smith, swimming instructor at the Fullerton high school, completed this special training course at the American National Aquatic school held this past summer on Russian river. He will act as a Red Cross instructor for Northern Orange county chapter.

Christian Science

"Adam and Fallen Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist. The Golden Text was from the Gospel according to John: "He that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all."

A Bible selection included Paul's words to the Romans: "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit... For they that are after the flesh, but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace... But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you."

One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy stated: "The Son of the Virgin-mother unfolded the remedy for Adam, or error; and the Apostle Paul explains this warfare between the idea of divine power, which Jesus presented, and mythological material intelligence called energy and opposed to Spirit."

W.C.T.U. Meeting Set for Tuesday

YORBA LINDA, Nov. 7.—The newly organized Yorba Linda W.C.T.U., and the Placentia W.C.T.U., will meet at the studio home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seaman on Buena Vista avenue tomorrow, with a covered dish luncheon set for 12 o'clock. Principal speaker will be Miss Eloise Hafford of the Ruth home at El Monte, who will speak on "The Biggest Problem Facing the United States Today." The Rev. Sheldon Newkirk will speak briefly.

LET'S BE SENSIBLE

Let's dig the mud away. It's about time to look carefully at the FACTS. Tomorrow we select a district attorney. We're all stockholders in a $190,000,000 corporation, Orange county. He's our attorney for the next four years.

WE WANT AN EXPERIENCED ONE

Suppose we look at the record. W. F. Menton has been a capable public servant for 12 years. He is thoroughly familiar with his duties. He has defended the county in lawsuits totaling many hundreds of thousands of dollars—and the taxpayers have not lost ONE CENT, not even in costs.

THAT EXPERIENCE SPELLS ECONOMY

Our District Attorney is a sane, sensible counselor, rendering efficient and capable service not only to hundreds of county, school and special district board members but also to the citizen who needs the district attorney's help. He has an excellent record as a prosecutor.

WHY TAKE A CHANCE?

His advice has been proved sound. Sometimes county officers and supervisors disregard it—and the result is a legal muddle like the salary ordinance, or ordinances declared unconstitutional, like the hog ranch ordinances.

HIS ABILITY IS UNQUESTIONED

W. F. Menton has been sharply criticized by three young attorneys, none of them with experience as a prosecutor. He is supported by dozens of experienced men, among them three who have been district attorneys and who know the problems of that office. His supporters include such men as L. A. WEST, one of Orange county's best district attorneys; ELMER GUY, runner-up in the primary; RIDLEY SMITH, board of education member; and A. J. CRUICKSHANK, Santa Ana civic leader.

CHAPTER I

JUDY ALCOTT stood by the chain rail of the huge battle wagon, looking down at the black water. The deck was solid under her feet. Overhead, there were stars in a deep blue sky. From the open butterfly hatch over the wardroom, the sound of a piano stole softly into the night air.

She was a small, slim girl. She wore a new evening dress, from which her shoulders rose white and lovely. Beside her, a tall young man in the blue of a naval lieutenant, with wings on his breast, was looking down at her. And she knew that he found her beautiful, and she knew that this was why—paradoxically enough—he was quarreling with her.

Her hand touched the cold chain. She said, without looking at him, "I don't know what you mean. What if I do see Dwight Campbell a lot? What if we have dates and go dancing? He's nice. I like him. He likes me."

Jack Hanley had been her friend a long time, and she often thought of him as a sturdy, dependable big brother. But now he had changed. Was it jealousy? All this sudden hatred of Dwight Campbell. All this advice—interfering in her business—

The man's brown eyes were clouded. His face was grave. He looked down at her standing there, her pale gold hair alive in the moonlight. He had said a lot of things in this miserable half hour since they had left the others in the wardroom, after dinner. Vague, roundabout things. She didn't quite know what he was driving at. Now, suddenly, he burst out, "I'm trying to tell you that this, Judy Alcott! He's not your kind! You must go with him! He's just a Navy politician, with his eyes on the main chance. He's after pull, influence, quick promotions. And your father is an admiral!"

For a moment, she was stunned. Dwight Campbell, gay and personable and so good-looking he reminded you of a movie actor playing the role of officer. Dwight with whom she had danced until two in the morning, only last night. Dwight with whom she'd ridden countless, star-sprinkled hours, and whose arms had held her close in an embrace that had stirred her heart for the first time since those other embraces... those kisses she mustn't remember.

And yet, no matter how many times she told herself she mustn't remember, she could never forget. Jack Hanley's face grew misty, and even the face of Dwight faded. There was only Ward Fenning. Ward splendid and invulnerable in his youth, in his Viking strength, with his light hair falling across his tanned forehead, and his blue eyes—as blue as her own—laughing down into her face.

Ward Fenning had not worn navy blue and brass buttons when she met him, although he was a junior grade lieutenant. He'd worn the khaki of a flying man. He was in lighter-than-air, at Lakehurst.

They had been so terribly in love, she and Ward. Night after night they had sat at the edge of the lake in the small town near the station, watching the dark water, telling each other silly, tender things. Kissing. Planning for the future. When Ward was an admiral... When he had a whole squadron of huge powerful silver fish sailing the skies.

They had talked about getting married, too, those nights on the lake's edge. And she had said, "Mother and Dad are so old-fashioned! They don't understand!" Her lips had quivered. "They think I'm too young! Too young!" She clung to him. "I couldn't love you any more, no matter how much older I got! Why can't they let us get married now. Why must we wait?" Ward stroked her hair, and put little kisses at the lobe of her ear. "I know, sweet," he said. "I know."

She said rebelliously, "Three years! It seems like eternity. I don't think I can live that long!" His lips on hers told her how much he wanted her. His hand, holding hers, was tense with the longing. But he said loyally, "Your folks are right. You're only sixteen."

Sixteen! But she had known, the first time she saw him, that this was her man, and there would never be anyone else.

WELL, she had lived. Her heart hurt now, thinking of that. She had lived. But he hadn't! For on a storm swept night that April, the huge Akron rose into the skies at the command of "Up Ship!" And at midnight, in a burst of lightning, it nosed down into the sea. She mustn't think about it! Mustn't think about the gray morning in the commandant's house when the wives of the other men had wept silently, enduring their loss as navy wives must. Only she had been bitter and rebellious, beating her fists uselessly against the pillows, sobbing until her eyes were burning and her face was a pale, tear-plowed ruin.

Ships had rushed to the spot where the Akron went down. Merchant ships and navy ships and Coast Guard patrols. But they found only floating wreckage, and three lone men, clinging to aluminum tanks. Three men out of the eighty one who had been aboard the Akron!

Jack Hanley, here at her side, was one of those survivors. She had hated him; at first. Hated all of them who had lived, while Ward had been sucked down into the dark sea. She had thought crazy, whirling things. Tried to picture it. The cries. The men in the water. The great, proud Akron crippled and breaking up. For months she had been inconsolable, so that her father had to send her away to the country while she got a hold on herself. And she had hated him, too. "If you had let me marry Ward, I'd have been his wife, even if only for a little while!"

DRIVE CAREFULLY —SAVE A LIFE—

NON-VOTING PERIL TO DEMOCRACY

Non-voting is a peril to democracy. And if you have been a non-voter, tomorrow is an excellent time for you to think over and decide to stop being one.

Registration lists are up, interest is at fever heat and all the signs indicate a heavy vote.

But when it's all over and the votes have been counted, it will be found, as usual, that only a little better than half of the electorate bothered to go to the polls.

Of course, this is a free country. The right to vote carries with it the indisputable right to refrain from voting.

Nevertheless, the non-voter is decidedly a handicap to democracy. For if voting is a privilege, it also is a duty. The theory of democracy assumes that each man and woman will perform that duty; each man who fails does his bit to weaken the democracy he lives under.

For the "special interest"—the pressure groups, the political machines, the factions, the something for nothing people—none of these ever fail to vote. It is only the man who has nothing at stake but the welfare of the country as a whole who stays away. A disciplined political group can, and very often does, run things with scant regard for the interest of the whole.

Don't peril democracy by staying home tomorrow. Get out and vote. Vote for the man you think best fitted for office; vote the way your conscience dictates; vote any way you want to, that's your privilege, but VOTE.

PROPOSITION NO. 1 NEEDED

The opponents of No. 1 contend that there is no need for its passage; that we have all the laws we now need to protect man's rights in property.

We contend that this statement is not true. We need the new law to establish mass picketing as a crime. Let us illustrate what we mean. If we do not need the new law to establish mass picketing as a crime, then a man who enters your house at night and puts his hand under your pillow and takes your watch out and contends that he is not trying to steal it, but only trying to see what time it is, is not guilty of thievery; and he is guilty of thievery, because he was apprehended in the act and even if he did not succeed in his thievery.

Everyone knows that this man is guilty of a crime, whether he carried it out or not.

Let us take another illustration. Suppose a man puts gasoline or oil under the foundation of a building that is inflammable and, with a mask on or unidentified, is caught with a match lighted ready to light the gasoline. Is he not just as much subject to regulation and punishment for burning the building as if he burned down the building?

Just so, when large masses of men assemble and claim it is peaceful picketing, it is just as logical to conclude that it is for the purpose of coercion and intimidation and depriving other people of their rights as it is to conclude that the man who was caught with his hand under your pillow and the watch in it is guilty of thievery.

So we need the law to definitely define and punish the motives back of mass assemblage for the purpose of coercion, now called "peaceful picketing."

SCHOOL TEACHERS AND PROPOSITION NO. 1

In panicky plight the opponents of Proposition No. 1 have resorted to many drastic plans to cast suspicion on the measure. One of these has been, the attempt to convince other organizations that the labor unions would be destroyed and all other organizations with them. That is inferring that labor unions cannot exist without the aid of lawlessness, and that lawlessness cannot be controlled without destroying organization. The successful peaceful collective bargaining by numerous independent unions refutes this argument.

However, their attempt to frighten the teachers has been spied by an opinion from Alfred E. Lentz, legal adviser for the Department of Education, directed to Roy W. Cloud, executive secretary of the California Teachers Association. In the opinion Lentz said:

"A reading of the proposition, particularly Section 1 thereof declaring the policy to be followed in interpreting the proposition, shows beyond a doubt that the proposition cannot affect the Association or its activities.

"No one who is familiar with the articles of incorporation of the Association or the by-laws of the Association, the policies of the Association and the provisions of said Proposition No. 1 can logically contend that the Association is a labor organization within the meaning of the subdivision D of Section 2 of the proposition.

"However, even conceding, for the sake of argument, that the Association does come within the definition, an examination of the acts prohibited by the proposition shows conclusively, I think, that no one of the prohibited acts is one which the California Teachers Association has ever engaged in or even considered engaging in."

The source of this statement should be sufficient to dispel all doubt in the minds of teachers and the members of all other organizations as well as to the soundness of this measure.

A similar attempt has been made to frighten the doctors, by a letter over the signature of Dr. H. Dewey Anderson, who has on occasions, been purported to be a member of the Stanford faculty. This latter has been denied by President Wilbur. Even the W.C.T.U. and similar groups have been subjected to such attempted fears.

Remember, if you are opposed to lawlessness by union leaders you should vote YES on No. 1.

'BY THEIR PROMOTERS YE SHALL KNOW THEM'

In Roosevelt's speech Friday night, he made one statement that is absolutely true. He said, in talking about the supporters of candidates and how you should judge them, "By their promoters ye shall know them."

And we shall know Roosevelt by the promoters who support him. We shall know him by John Lewis, by Harry Bridges, by Madam Perkins, by Harry Hopkins, by Governor Murphy of Michigan. These men are all opposed to the free enterprise system. These men never created jobs. These men never hire labor and pay them more than anyone else will pay them and sell their product to benefit their customers. These men destroy. These men sell envy, hate and covetousness—exactly what Roosevelt does.

Roosevelt never employed labor and paid it more than it could get working for any other private citizen. Roosevelt never created a service and lowered the cost of living to the people by selling it for less than other firms sold it. Roosevelt believes we can have more by regimentation, by the state eliminating the right of an individual to work for the private employer who will pay him most. Roosevelt wants the state, through his appointees, to be able to tell every individual where he shall work and for what price. He is a Tory and a reactionary of the worst type. Yet, he claims to be a liberal. Liberty means exactly what it says—the right to make decisions without interference from the state or coercion from others.

JAPAN'S POWER

As we remember the prediction made by Oswald Spengler, the great German historian, in his book, "The Hour of Decision," printed in 1923, in which he said he did not know whether the yellow, white or black race would predominate, a statement made by Benjamin De Casseres, on the Japanese situation is indicative that Spengler had great foresight.

De Casseres says: "The spotlight in the East turns to Canton and the British island possession of Hongkong.

"Canton is only 80 miles from Hongkong, less than the distance between New York and Philadelphia. Nearly all the export trade of Canton is cleared through Hongkong, one of the five great commercial ports of the world.

"It is said that Japan moved into the Hongkong-Canton sector because she is convinced England will not fight.

"Czechoslovakia is not Hongkong. The latter is the key to the British empire.

"If Japan enters on Hongkong, we shall see that which no Chamberlain or Daladier can stave off—a world war."

If Japan steps on Hongkong and brings about a conflict with England and France, something very serious has been started.

Few people realize the power that Japan has gained in the last six weeks.

TOM MOONEY'S CANDIDATE

One of the most curious of all political endorsements has come from a precinct where there are no polls, no ballots and no voters—San Quentin prison! There the legislative record of one candidate for high state office has so aroused the enthusiasm of Tom Mooney that he not only has endorsed him for lieutenant-governor, but has formed an exclusive, one-man Patterson-for-Lieutenant-Governor club—consisting of Tom Mooney.

Declares Mooney: "Patterson's record on labor and civil liberties places him at the very top of the list. If by any chance, the responsibility should ever rest with Ellis Patterson to consider my case as Governor of California, I know he would pardon me. I sincerely hope he will be elected to this high office."

Mooney's arguments are well established. His candidate's record on labor includes approval of the invasion of property rights through sit-down strikes. His record on "civil liberties" includes introducing twice, bills to repeal California's criminal-syndicalism law, voting to strike from the School Code the provision forbidding teachers to practice criminal-syndicalism, voting to open California public schools to meetings of Communist or other subversive nature.

Unquestionably, Mr. Patterson has both the record and the political philosophy for an "ideal" Lieutenant-governor, and an "ideal" governor—according to Tom Mooney's ideals. It remains to be seen whether Tom Mooney's ideals are shared by Californians generally.

evident that the main plank in his platform on which he was nominated by the California Democrats, is utterly unworthy of consideration by intelligent men. If President Roosevelt can bring himself to endorse a man who would advocate such a crack-brained fantasy as the '$30-a-week-Thursday' plan, it would seem he has achieved that Biblical paradox of straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel.

George Attack Cited

"When such a steadfast Democrat and sound statesman as Senator Walter F. George of Georgia is branded as unsuitable for the Senate, simply because he opposed the Supreme Court packing plan, and when Sheridan Downey with his mathematically and economically impossible pension dream is endorsed, the height of illogic has apparently been achieved.

Insincerity Seen

"Downey may, in his heart, know the pension plan he supports is unworkable. Whether he knows this or not, his support of the plan brands him as not of Senatorial caliber.

"For, if he actually believes in the scheme, his mental capacity is certainly not of that quality which should be found in the United States Senate. If he knows his plan is unworkable, then he is guilty of deliberately deceiving the voters and working a cruel hoax for no other purpose than his own election.

"That such a man should receive Presidential backing in his campaign is a startling demonstration of the dangerous extremes to which partisanship may go. If Sheridan Downey is a 'real liberal in mind and heart,' then such liberalism is a dangerous philosophy to inject into the deliberations of the Senate."

UP FROM SCARCITY, BACK TO WANT

Fellow Citizens:

On June 30, 1935, about 45 per cent of the world's wealth was in this country, which was enough to give each family $14,000. We had the largest and best supply of tools upon earth. Twenty million families owned motor cars. They had bath tubs and radios and electric service in their homes. They had 55 billion dollars on deposit and 19 billion dollars invested in life insurance. They had good furniture and plenty of clothing.

Times had been good for 33 years with but a few short recessions. Work had been plentiful and wages good.

Six months later, 10 or 12 million persons were jobless. Industry had slowed down, the banks were closing.

Yet the tools of industry had not been dulled. The workers retained their skill and will to work. Raw materials were plentiful. Employers were keen to go on at full capacity. Why the deadlock?

War inflated prices had broken here as they had broken in all other countries. Our politicians and the labor bosses demanded that our wages be held up to war inflated levels as a means of spreading buying power for recapturing lost business. Big business yielded. But powerful as it was, it could not resist the pull of economic gravity. A small portion of it made small profits. But industry, agriculture and business as a whole went into the red 35 billion dollars in five years. Much of it, including most of our railroads, have not got out.

Those 35 billion dollars were equal to 25 per cent of the total wealth of the world. They were paid out to labor at war time wages. The whole capital value of industry, if it could be sold and spent for living expenses would pay such costs only one or two years.

In 1936, the amount of wealth produced was 63 billion dollars and the wealth paid out 62 billion dollars, which means that the people spent 62 billion dollars that year for consumer goods and services. It is workers, not dollars, that earn. It is the vote seeking politicians tell us.

Pay out all in wages—put nothing back into machinery. Somebody, somehow will then pay the bare-handed workmen bigger wages, pension the old and make us all secure. The politicians have a two point program. Raise wages. Lift agriculture to parity. They have given the big shot in labor the Wagner act for raising wages. The bosses are enforcing the closed shop, with this act and compelling minority groups of labor and employers to submit to boss domination. It does not make the bosses responsible to employers for damage done by illegal strikes or destruction of property. They may beat up workers with the same impunity. This is their way of placing men above dollars.

The politicians themselves are lifting agriculture to parity with union wages. Here is what they gave this writer for his 1935 crop. Cost of farm $14,000. Tax for 1937, $236.80. Ins. $13.20. Materials for fences and buildings $68. Alfalfa seed $25. Crop 1500 bushels grain. Average price at farm 30 cents a bushel. Hay 140 tons—price $6 a ton. Owners share 500 bu. grain. 215 sacks cost 28.65 cents. Value grain $150. Hay 70 tons, value $420. Net income $238.35. Union wages in building trades $1.00 per hour. Owners' income would hire one mechanic 30 days at union wages.

Tenants grain $300. Hay $420. Total $720. Threshing bill and sacks $120. Net $600. Minimum wages in General Motors $6 a day. Tenants family, 3 men and two women. They all worked—their income would hire one of General Motors lowest paid workers 100 days or 4 months.

This is how they gave millions of farmers parity.

They have spent 45 billion dollars and raised the national debt to 40 billion dollars while trying to keep agriculture at parity with union wages. They have induced our lower governments to bond and tax themselves heavily for dollars to match with Federal dollars that are to be spent somewhere else if not matched where offered.

This policy has started the nation back to shackles and want. The losses to labor and capital have been enormous. The loss to one worker at $16 weekly for 12 million years is $7488. To the 12 million of them it is 90 billion dollars. To the part time workers and self employed people who have not had busy it is probably 40 billion dollars, or up.

The loss of profits to one owner of corporation stock at an estimated average of $300 a year is $2700 in nine years. To the whole 8 million of them it is 21.6 billion dollars.

The sum of these losses plus the 35 billions that productive enterprise went into the red is 157 billion dollars which is equal to 100 per cent for each of our 30 million families.

The politicians have not shared in these losses. They have gained. They have made hundreds of thousands of new political jobs. Their salaries are unreduced.

Unemployment makes votes for them. It puts men and women on work relief. The relief workers express their gratitude at the polls. In the meantime, such men as Harry Bridges are down front bearing us "isms" from across the sea for shackling the people.

Not many have seen what bond-ages does or know how hard it is to break free when once shackled. The politicians are asking the people to give them a mandate to use these powers for sabotaging machinery so that men shall be placed above dollars.

This is the short cut to Utopia that we shall vote on Tuesday.

CHAS. P. STRAIN.

Fellow Citizens:

Four years ago Upton Sinclair stood on the threshold of governorship of California. Fearful of the coming election we awaited the outcome. Happily the catastrophe was averted by a mere margin. Now, another danger confronts us, another crisis, and in a far greater measure. The very same general who promoted the Upton Sinclair communicative program are again in the front rank marshalling their forces, silver tongued Downey, Willy Olson and Communist Patterson. Both are extremists to the utmost limit, bent on catering to the ham and scrambled eggs demands of today. This is the bait in obtaining their aim, by fair means or foul. In their estimation the end justifies the means. They will keep the New Deal ball rolling by piling up pyramids of debt. Their fantastic ham and eggs bait is bound to find an outlet somewhere for making good their promises. The age old custom of ruinous taxation will play havoc during their regime. It spells a death blow to land and homeowners, business and industry, employers and employees. In the end it will mean ruin to all except themselves and their bureaucracies. Is there any opposition to the ham and egg demands and the airy, fairy New Deal? Plenty, but it melts away as soon as the siren voice of the piper of Hamelin is heard over the radio.

Are we willing to be led blindly on the rocks by those who have no scruples in leading this great state of ours to the brink of ruin? Why not give credit where credit is due. The solvency of the state has been maintained during Merriam's administration. This is of vital importance. Balancing the budget spells credit and many other economic advantages.

Governor Merriam has stood solid for old age pension to the relief of deserving needy. It is still in its infancy. In time it may develop into a structure that benefits all. Why not elect men that are solid and substantial. Men that can be depended on, who are willing to support the constitution; men like Merriam, Bancroft, Johnson, Franklin instead of those of a will-o'-wisp complexion.

HELENA S. CHRISTIANSEN.

Fellow Citizens: Facts and figures pertaining to the juvenile situation in Orange County were brought to my attention so forcibly and conclusively that I would have been dilatory in my obligations as a district chairman if I had not brought my information before the properly constituted Legion body of Orange County, which I did. And I hope loyal Legionnaires who know my long record will agree that I did my duty. I am not responsible because there happened to be persons present unknown to me at that time and over whom I had no control as to their subsequent actions that did make some of my charges public property. I will say, however, that the report given to the newspapers was correctly stated, but in most cases the papers did not use the report as handed them with the result that the published articles were confusing and erroneous.

After I had made my report to the county council of the American Legion a motion was made that a committee be appointed to investigate the charges as stated by me and as the maker of those charges I had a perfect right to continue along those lines, and as chairman of the 21st District Child Welfare Committee it was not my intention that the council that the investigating committee make public our findings until the charges had been fully substantiated. But the matter got out of our hands through no fault or desire of ours.

At this time I wish to give my personal observations of the existing conditions at our detention home, to-wit:

I spent four hours at the detention home and found that the children were not underfed or subjected to corporal punishment. I was misinformed. There are in the neighborhood of 36 cells in this institution that are used as sleeping quarters and about eight solid tary confinement cells where children are kept until their case is

Farm Protests Gets Results

By HARLEY L. LUTZ

Professor of Public Finance, Princeton University

The Department of Agriculture has recently announced a reorganization of the agencies that had been created to supervise and regiment the farmers under the agricultural legislation.

The purpose was said to be that of expediting the services to the public. It is well known that this announcement was not spontaneous. It was a last-minute defensive move against the rising tide of agricultural complaint and opposition under a scheme which, despite the camouflage, applied so thoroughly the viewpoint and policy of the dictatorship states. In this episode there is more involved than farm relief.

The fact that a sector of the federal bureaucracy is to be redesigned so as to expedite service to the public is of universal significance. It should be noted that this decision was made only after the beneficiaries of the service had expressed, in vigorous terms, their dissatisfaction with the previous arrangement. Naturally this raises the query—Why did the bureaucrats wait until a storm of protest had arisen before deciding to make changes which would expedite their services? The answer is that the expeditious performance of service is not the goal of bureaucracy. Prompt, efficient, and it may be added, economical service, is never the primary aim of bureaucratic administration. Rather, the aim is the evolution and elaboration of red tape, the creation of useless jobs, and the steady enlargement of the bureaucratic power and prestige.

There can be no question that the condition revealed in this instance is widespread. Nor can there be any doubt that the failure to rectify it is not to be attributed to the refusal of Congress to enact the kind of reorganization bill that was offered in the last session. The action now announced by the Department of Agriculture reveals that what is needed is not so much a new law but a new point of view. The needed viewpoint is not really new. It is, in fact, an old, though fundamental one, which seems new only because it has come to be so completely disregarded. It is the simple principle that government exists to perform certain services for the people in the most efficient and economical manner possible. Had this principle been of controlling influence, no agrarian revolt would have been necessary to inspire the administrative changes now belatedly to be made in order to expedite the giving of service in this instance.

The episode reveals something else. It is that since bureaucracy can be induced to mend its ways only by citizen protest, the time has come for more protests. We need a citizen revolt against the steady increase of taxation and against the further piling up of the mountain of public debt. Most of all we need a citizen revolt against the wasteful spending policy that is forcing the rise of tax rates and the crushing increase of public debt. If the only way to direct official attention to the opportunities for improving the public service and for reducing its cost is by using the ax, then the ax should be used. Bureaucracy has little internal capacity, and no internal desire, to purge itself.

Fortunately, the country has not, as yet, moved so far toward the totalitarian state as to make protest impossible, as it is now elsewhere where the people exercise their right of protest and criticism, however, it is likely to lapse through non-use. The farmers have done all of us an excellent service by speaking out. It is now up to the taxpayers to follow their lead.

News Behind The News

By PAUL MALLON

World Copyright 1935 by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—This election is apt to have a decisive effect without a decisive result. The whole future course of government is very likely to be determined without a nominal change.

Not even the Republicans think they will capture the house; not even Friday's vote is expected to alter the numerical party line-up there materially.

But both Mr. Roosevelt and the independent veering congress are looking for sustenance in this section. Both intend to mark their future course by the results.

Not that any particular Roosevelt doctrine is at stake. The President has his New Deal practically up to date. Only left over on the legislative stove is the reorganization bill and he cannot get enough fire going to cook that one under any circumstances.

But if he succeeds in putting down Republican resurgence in such vital states as New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, he will restore his earlier solitary political power.

He will recapture unchallengeable control of his own party; may thus be enabled to plan further newdealing along lines not yet marked.

If he fails, he will be forced by practical necessities to sidetrack or play down the leftwing strain in his administration as represented factually by such cherrub countenances as Hopkins, Cogan, Ickes,—or let a more independent congress efface them.

Thus the psychological effect of the results may prove to be all-controlling.

Indirect suggestion of this true significance was made by Senator Pat Harrison in Missouri. None of the moderates or centrists of the Democratic party have peeped since his purge. P. G. Garner, for a notional instance, has been living in seclusion in his Uvalde den. Harrison has dropped the only hint of 1940 possibilities for Senator Bennett Champ Clark, reputed to be Garner's candidate.

Harrison broke the centrist stillness only because Clark asked several months ago to speak. Pat was the only senator Clark invited.

decided by the juvenile court. In one case a girl was kept in solitary confinement for three weeks until she agreed to take shots supposed to cure her assumed undersexual condition. There is no segregation of those having social diseases but all possible precautions are taken in their care and treatment. There is a decided lack of vocational and recreational facilities. There is no place provided, especially for the boys, for as-seniors after the evening meals for purposes of reading, harmless indoor recreation, etc. There is no segregation of those children that are being held until disposition has been made of their cases who are wards of the county and those that are there as juvenile delinquents. It is not my intention to attempt at this time of suggesting ways and means of correcting or of placing the responsibility for existing conditions at the home. I further wish to state that I can find no fault with the personnel of the home. I also want to state that if in any manner I have done them any injustice I wish to apologize for same.

Now as to the juvenile courts. The figures I gave regarding the commitments made to Preston and

But the centrists are not dead, only sleeping until their words and deeds can afford no consolation to Republican oppositionists.

Campaign tactics have smoke-screened the situation. Roosevelt has become a localized issue in the most important states, but until Friday's vote is announced nationally in any form by any of his campaign organizations.

This decentralization technique was necessary (in accord with time-written custom) to preserve an elastic front covering Democratic candidates of many hues, from California ham and eggers to Banker Lehman, labor-leftist Wagner, unpurged Tydings. For example, the President dispatched endorsements to Earle for Pennsylvania consumption only—to Downey for California distribution alone.

Republicans followed the same course, which enabled them to vary the intensity of their anti-Newdealism in different states.

Result in the election has been nationally unexciting. California only knows in a general way what has been going on in New York and vice versa. Likewise advance checking of probable results has been less confident than usual.

Ohio polls, for instance, generally forecast a Taft Republican victory but there are 300,000 WPA workers in the state and none of the top polls has been weighted for that consideration.

In New York, polls indicate Dewey-Lehman 50-50, but in a close race the ability of Democratic machines to get out their full vote in such places as the Bronx, Brooklyn and Albany may not be reflected in the polls.

Election-eve outlook indicates these prospects of Republican victories through substantial house gains or senatorial or gubernatorial successes.

Probable—Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, South Dakota, New Hampshire.

Possible—New York, Kansas, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Oregon, Michigan.

Remote—New Jersey, Illinois, California, Iowa, Rhode Island, Colorado.

Whittier schools are substantiated by statistical reports published by the State of California and are without a doubt correct but bear in mind that there are three superior court judges that deal with cases of minors.

The thing that I am primarily interested in is the alarming figures in Orange county and what we intend to do about it. As to the courts unless the documentary evidence and the statements made to me by the parents of 20 or more children are unfounded, I honestly believe that they rightfully feel that they or their children did not receive proper consideration, and hence their bitter attitude in some cases, and a wholesome desire on their part that your children are not treated the same as theirs. I have promised these parents, except those that did not so state, that I would refrain from making public their case and I shall keep that trust unless forced to do so by the courts. I have no political or appointment aspirations. Lastly, I wish to state that I am not out of the picture now or in the future as far as the child welfare program in Orange county is concerned.

R. S. NORTON,

LA HABRA PIONEERS HOLD ANNUAL REUNION

ROSS HODSON NEW PRESIDENT

LA HABRA, Nov. 7.—Old settlers of the La Habra valley with their families held their annual picnic in the Washington school cafeteria Saturday night. Election of officers was held. Many came from out of town to talk over old times.

Program Presented
N. M. Launer, president of the group conducted the meeting following the 7 o'clock dinner. Musical selections on clarinet and piano were furnished by Cleo Tanquary and Cleo Beery. Mrs. George Wolfe also played several selections on the marimbaphone. Wolfe read a paper giving her impressions of the early days in La Habra valley and Mrs. R. E. Launer gave a paper on the historical part of the old days, enumerating dates and important happenings in the valley, from the time the Digger Indians inhabited the valley up to the World war.

Frank McFadden was found to be the earliest settler present. He came into the valley by mule team in 1891. Many others present told of their early experiences and several of those who had been children in the valley told of the various youth clubs.

Officers Selected
Ross Hodson was chosen president, R. E. Launer, vice president, and Mrs. Edgar Leuhm, secretary-treasurer. They will replace N. M. Launer as president; L. E. Proud, v. president, and Mrs. C. G. Schuepbach, secretary-treasurer.

ATTEND LAST RITES FOR MRS. WILSON

Mrs. H. T. Jones, 844 North Van Ness avenue, Mrs. J. H. McEuen and Evelyn Goren of Garden Grove, were in Long Beach today, to attend funeral services for the late Mrs. Sarah F. Wilson, 86, formerly of this city, whose death occurred Friday, following a long illness. Burial was to be in Whittier cemetery.

Mrs. Wilson was a sister of Mrs. McEuen and an aunt of Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Green. She is survived also by her son, William R. Wilson, formerly of Santa Ana but now of Long Beach. Her death was not unexpected as she had been in failing health since suffering a stroke several months ago. She fell three years ago, breaking her hip, and had never regained her health.

Through a peculiar coincidence, Mrs. Jones recalled that funeral services for her own mother, Mrs. Mary C. Wilson, were held exactly fourteen years ago today. The two women were cousins as well as sisters-in-law.

First Aid Grants Are Sent Out

Advanced first aid Red Cross certificates for a W.P.A. class of 21 today were sent to successful members by Clem Knox, instructor for the class.

Included among those who will receive certificates are: Edward A. Brennan, James L. DeWitt, A. H. Gritton, Mary N. Kessler, John E. Little, James W. Martin, Celeste Oliver, Harry E. Ringler, and Hazel Walling, all of Santa Ana; Peter L. Kavenaugh, Anaheim; Forrest E. Davidson, Daniel Reich, Eugene Taitt, Walter Thompson and Charles B. Williams, all of Costa Mesa; Paul E. Hill, Huntington Beach; Howard Brice, William E. Englehardt, Robert W. Gaerte, all of Orange, and Lawrence V. Malscrane, of Tustin.

Strong Wind Wrecks Radio

Perhaps the winds of the weekend were even stronger than they were reported to have been, police indicated yesterday in a report placed on file. A Gilfillan table model radio was found in a yard at the east side of the Elitiste warehouse on East Fifth by Mrs. J. L. Cunningham, 420 East Fifth, the finder, told officers N. C. Nelson and Roy Hartley. How did it get there? Did the wind play that prank? It's a mystery, say the officers.

Mrs. M. R. Tebb Called By Death

Mrs. Margaret Rose Tebb, 34, 4533 East First street, who came to Santa Ana from Tacoma, Washington, a little more than a year ago, died today at Santa Ana Valley hospital following a brief illness. Mrs. Tebb was a native of Michigan.

She is survived by the husband, Neal A. Tebb, one son, Phillip Thomas Tebb; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Short; two sisters, Mrs. G. H. Blows, Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. P. J. Lentz, of Long Beach, Washington.

Brown and Wagner mortuary are making arrangements for funeral services and interment to be held in Tacoma.

PLAN JAMBOREE
The Santa Ana City Employees association will hold a jamboree and dance at the American Legion hall tonight. The dance is for city employees and their invited guests. Tickets for those over 15 years old who will attend are 50 cents each.

FULLERTON LOSES LIBRARY PROJECT

FULLERTON, Nov. 7.—The library project for Fullerton has been lost, at least for the present, according to Mayor T. K. Gowen, and the city hall project may also be lost before the week is over through failure of getting the federal appropriation. The grant for flood control in Brea creek also stands a chance of being lost, Gowen said.

The library grant is definitely lost for the present, according to the mayor, as funds were withdrawn from Fullerton Saturday. According to a message sent to Miss Carrie Shepherd, librarian, the $53,000 federal grant for this project will be allocated to some other place.

Had the opponents of the city hall withdrawn their protest against the city hall, the city funds might have been diverted in such a way as to have saved all three projects for the city, and have paved the way for spending about $150,000 of federal monies, as well as other monies, in a development program, Mayor Gowen said. The grant for the library was lost because the fund could not be released until the city had settled the city hall project. The library fund was short some $15,000 which could have been met through next year's taxes, but is not available now. The amount could have been released from the general fund had the court appeal on the city hall referendum been withdrawn, Gowen said.

Elderly Man In Search of Home

A local elderly man was hunting a home. He lost his Saturday night. According to police reports, he was taken by his daughter to Anaheim to live with a son. He was let out of the car at the Anaheim place, found no one home, wandered about until early Sunday morning when M. Fox of Route 3, Anaheim, found him, and took him to the sheriff's office. Deputy Jailer Elmer Parker called police who took him to county hospital for the remainder of the night.

When Officer C. N. Nelson contacted the daughter's home here to advise of her father's whereabouts, a man who had been drinking according to the officer, answered the summons. He said: "Take him back to Anaheim so his son can take care of him." The man was advised that local officers have no authority to perform the taxi service.

Boy Loses Shoe In Local Chase

For the want of a shoe the "battle" was lost here last night. Gene Morrison, 615 West Fifth street, told police he saw a youth peeking through the window at his home, dashed out, grabbed him, but the youth jerked loose and escaped. As he ran like a deer down the street, the boy lost his shoe which "flew" off his foot as he ran. He didn't stop for it. Officers Paul Cozad and Ralph Puntoso searched without success for the boy. Then they got another call from Morrison. The boy, 16, of Garden Grove returned for the shoe and that time Morrison made good the capture. The boy said he wasn't looking through the window. "My aunt lives here and I was making a short-cut to her place," he said.

S. A. Man Chases Wife With Sword

Santa Ana police last night confiscated a sword, according to Officers L. C. Rogers and C. V. Adams. The sword had been used by a local man, who, a few minutes before, had been chasing his wife with the sword as a weapon. The officers responded to the call from a neighbor woman that the man had been drinking and abusing his wife.

County Residents Report On "Hunt"

Councilman Joseph P. Smith, accompanied by Bennie W. Osterman, El Toro, and George A. Osterman, Huntington Beach, returned yesterday from a successful hunting trip at Mogollon, New Mexico, 200 miles south of Albuquerque, where they hunted by horseback in six inches of snow.

The three were guests of Hon. Manuel B. Otero, New Mexico sheep rancher and former Collector of Customs at El Paso, Tex., under President Herbert Hoover. The men obtained a limit of deer and squirrels but failed to obtain a bear or turkeys also found in the area. The men had been gone one week.

JAMES E. BROWNING DIES AT HIS HOME

James Eben Browning, 60, superintendent at the Holly Sugar corporation, died at his home at 1023 West Bishop street, yesterday after an illness lasting several weeks.

Born in Mercer county, Missouri, Mr. Browning came to Santa Ana six months ago from Delta, Colorado.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Albert M. Browning, two sons, J. Earl Browning, Santa Ana, and Frank Browning, Parkerton, Wyo.; two daughters, Mrs. Belle Stout, Ocean Park, Calif., and Mrs. La Vanche Blake, Santa Ana; three sisters, Mrs. Orta Mettler, Long Beach, Mrs. John Mettler, Atwood, Kans., and Mrs. Melvin Pippenger, Red Lodge, Mont.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow at Winbigger Memorial chapel with the Rev. W. S. Buchanan, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating. Burial will be made in Fairhaven cemetery.

Red Cross Crews To Attend Pageant

All Red Cross workers and roll call leaders are urged to attend a spectacular Red Cross pageant, "They Shall Be Heard," at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the Long Beach municipal auditorium. Dr. John Wehrly, chairman of the Santa Ana chapter received the announcement of the production. The pageant was presented at the National convention of the Red Cross in San Francisco, in May, and was accorded high praise by those who witnessed it at that time.

Parental Cruelty Blamed By Girls

Parental cruelty at home in Aztec, New Mexico was blamed for their departure by two 16-year-old girls who were brought here late last night by Mrs. Frank Klatt of Santa Ana who found them hitchhiking on Coast highway between Long Beach and Santa Ana and brought them here in her car. The girls, according to report of Police Matron Bertha Anderson, said they were mistreated by their fathers. One said her father was cruel and beat her so she left home. The other said her home life was "poor." Both were given into custody of juvenile authorities.

Halladay Will Filed In Court

Petition has been filed in superior court to probate the will of the late Eva L. Halladay, of Santa Ana, who was the victim of an automobile crash in Michigan October 16. The First National Bank filed the probate petition, which values the estate at $7500, consisting of a home in Santa Ana, stocks and other property.

The will left a life-estate interest in the home to a widowed daughter-in-law, Sarah Grace Halladay, of Salome, Ariz., the children of the latter being named as residuary heirs. All reside in Salome.

DEAN OF ARTISTS TALKS AT OPENING OF CHURCH SERIES

LAGUNA BEACH, Nov. 7.—Frank W. Cuprien, dean of the local art colony, was guest speaker last night at Community Presbyterian Church, in the initial address of a six-week symposium on "Art and Religion." His topic was "Art and Soul."

The veteran painter stressed the fact that mere technical excellence of artistry, however masterful, would be incomplete without infusion of the soul-spirit into whatever was being depicted by the artist. Likewise, Cuprien went on to say, one must possess the faculty of conveying to the beholder of his work the spiritual feeling possessed by the artist, to the end that the finished work should pass along the spark that impels the artist.

Mr. Cuprien, looking hale and hearty after his recent long illness, was welcomed by an audience that taxed the capacity of Community church and was later the subject of many congratulations and felicitations on his return to health and contact with his friends.

The Rev. Raymond L. Brahm, minister of Community church, who introduced the distinguished artist, also preached at the morning service, his sermon being appropriate to the impending Armistice day. Many ex-service men were noted in the congregation.

URGES ALL VOTERS TO RESPOND TUESDAY

J. Wayne Harrison, county Democratic campaign manager, today issued an appeal to all registered voters in Orange county, urging them to go to the polls tomorrow and vote.

"It makes no difference what your party affiliations are," Harrison said, "it is your duty as a citizen to go to the polls and vote. This is a government for the people and by the people and failure to exercise the franchise that is yours is a neglect of duty. If it has been important to vote in past elections it is more important to vote in this election when the people are to settle some of the gravest problems that have ever faced them."

"Every effort will be made by Democratic headquarters to get the voters to the polls tomorrow and to protect their franchise when they reach the polls," Harrison said. "Scores of automobiles will be available at headquarters, 293 North Broadway."

Speedboats Race Over Lido Course

NEWPORT BEACH, Nov. 7.—Speedboat races staged on Newport bay Sunday proved successful, with a large number of boats taking part. "El Torleleau," owned by Art Bobisch of the Long Beach Yacht club, with Don Steen, driver, was first in the 225 cubic inch class.

"Rigor Mortis" of the Central California Speed Boat association, Wiley, driver and owner, was second, with Lon Fareal third, and "Miss Golden Gate," champion of the past two years, placed fourth. The boat is owned by Dan Arena.

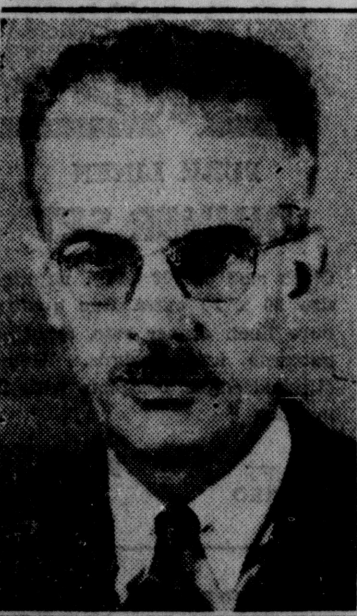

In the smaller boats, R. Beatty and Ronald Batt's "Spark" was first, Clay Smith and Ray McCullough's "Yankee Doodle," second; Dwight Dean's "Elf," third, and Dwight Avery's "Motions," fourth.

Races began at 12:30 p. m. in the Lido channel, with a qualifying race earlier in the morning. The events were staged under the auspices of the California Yacht club with the rules of the American Power Boat association.

Mrs. Lacy Called To Santa Monica

Mrs. Mark Lacy, 705 South Broadway, has gone to Santa Monica to be near her brother, Ross Waffle, who is seriously ill at the Veterans' hospital.

Ross Waffle is well known in this city, his former home, and where his and Mrs. Lacy's mother, the late Dr. Willella Waffle, was a leading physician for many years.

police news

Four speeders were fined $6 each when they pleaded guilty Saturday before City Judge J. G. Mitchell, are William Dillingham, Orange; Arthur Busch, Orange; Ralph Pickett, Fullerton, and Robert Veil, Hollywood. John Whitney, Santa Ana, was fined $5 for boulevard stop violation. A San Bernardino girl was certified to juvenile court at the same time after being charged with speeding and failure to appear. Charles Summers, 604 East Fourth street, was jailed for 30 days after pleading guilty on a vagrancy charge. Summers assertedly admitted he had written a fictitious check to pass but "lost my nerve" and tore it up after he became intoxicated on wine.

Arrested by Special Officer F. W. Lockhart and Deputy Sheriff Ives Brown and George Portus at the South Seas cafe Saturday night, two men and a woman were booked at county jail on disturbing the peace charges. They are LeVust Harrison Jr., 29, Los Angeles barber; Mrs. Ruth Harrison, 28, Los Angeles justice court clerk and William Martin, 27, Santa Ana telegraph operator. All are accused of fighting.

Alexander Albrecht, 37, Long Beach bartender, was booked at county jail Saturday night by Officer Harold Boyce, San Clemente, and charged with robbery. Charged with issuing a bank check with intent to defraud, A. P. Helmar, 46, Long Beach, was brought here Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Steve Duhart to face the charge. He was arrested by Long Beach officers on a warrant.

A man who said he was Capt. L. C. Shaw of Long Beach, and a member of the internal revenue department, was sought by snipers after Charlie Ott reported that Shaw had demanded permission to see the books of Skipper's Chowder house, Sunset Beach. He was refused permission to see the books, then disappeared.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS PROGRAM

GARDEN GROVE, Nov. 7.—Edgar Harrison Wileman, interior decorator of Los Angeles, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Woman's Civic club held in the clubhouse Friday afternoon. He spoke on the grouping and arrangement of furniture and exhibited drapery materials and various styles and patterns of wallpaper. Mrs. W. V. Brady presented the speaker.

Sues Polo Player For Divorce

RENO, Nev., Nov. 7.—(UP)—Mrs. Louise Sargent Tevis filed suit for divorce today against Gordon B. Tevis, socially prominent San Francisco polo player.

She will be granted an uncontested decree on her cruelty charge at a private trial before Judge A. J. Maestretti this afternoon.

They were married Nov. 16, 1931, less than a week after Tevis was divorced in Reno by Mrs. Marie Tevis on a cruelty charge.

A report of the mid-year county convention was given by Mrs. E. H. Williams. Mrs. E. H. Williams was appointed to attend the southern district convention at Coronado November 16 to 18, with Mrs. P. S. Virgin as alternate. Mrs. W. E. Sullivan spoke in favor of proposition No. 1 to be voted on at Tuesday's election. Welcomed as members were Mrs. Leslie Wain and Mrs. A. V. Gardiner.

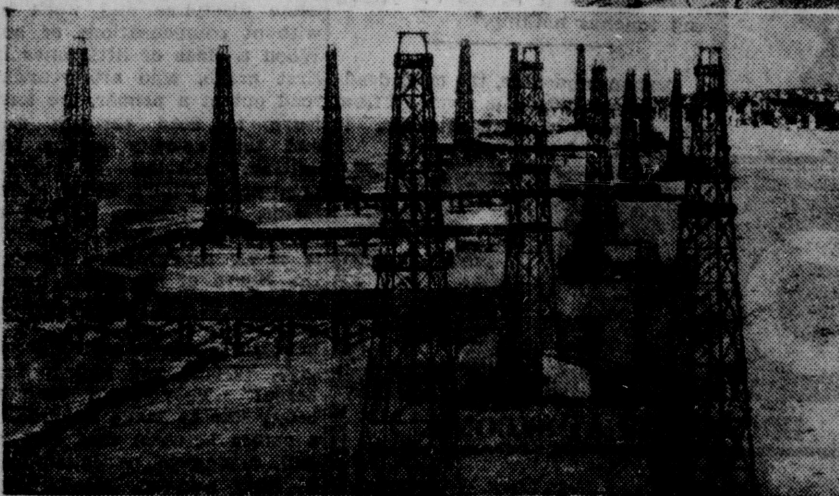

Announcement was made of the meeting of the Bible section Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. E. E. Nichols and the Rocklovers' meeting November 13 at the home of Mrs. E. G. Maier, with Mrs. P. S. Virgin as co-hostess. Miss Mabel Faulkner, Orange librarian, will give the book review.

Mrs. A. J. Kelly, Mrs. Edward Chaffee and Mrs. W. O. Broady served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

RULE ON SUGAR ACT OUTLINED

Agricultural practices which orange county sugar beet producers must meet to qualify for 1938 payments under the sugar act program were announced today by John H. Burnett, secretary of the Orange county agricultural conservation office.

These practices were determined by the secretary of agriculture particularly to fit California conditions upon recommendations from the state committee and are somewhat different than those which were in effect for the 1937 crop. W. B. Parker, state executive officer, stated.

Wage Rate Rules

To obtain sugar act payments for 1939, producers must meet these agricultural practices and also must comply with the wage rate requirements soon to be announced by the secretary of agriculture under terms of the sugar act of 1937.

Parker summarized the secretary's determination of practice requirements for 1939 in California as follows:

"To especially fit California cropping conditions, sugar beet growers can select a twelve-month period in which they may carry out the necessary practices, instead of a calendar-year period such as prevailed for 1939;

Rotation of Crops

"Growers will receive credit toward meeting practice requirements for maintaining legumes, for seeding legumes, for seeding and maintaining cover crops and for plowing under cover crops."

"Crop rotation practices are recognized for 1939 for the first time in connection with requirements of the sugar act program."

Full details of the determination will be sent to all sugar beet producers by county horticultural conservation committee offices in the near future.

BOURBONS ATTACK G. O. P. MEN WHO HURLED CHARGES OF "RED"

More than 1,000 people from all parts of Orange county heard Democratic speakers and party leaders assail Republican heads who have hurled the charge of "Red" at Bourbon candidates as the "final desperate attempt of a defeated party to discredit the Democrats."

"The opposition had to reach into the jails to find a man willing to attack Senator Olson and other candidates," J. Frank Burke, former Santa Ana publisher said. Burke referred to Arthur Kent, who is assertedly held in Los Angeles county jail, and who accused Senator Culbert Olson, Ellis Patterson and John Gee Clark, as "party members."

"This 'Red' business is an admission that the Republicans have no argument against the humanitarian beliefs of the Democratic party," Burke said.

Congressman Harry Sheppard, also speaking on the same platform, declared: "The 'Red' charges hurled by the Republicans are a 'lot of hokey.' The people of California are fed up with the type of representation they have had in Sacramento for years. In this election they have the most splendid opportunity ever offered them to express their views for a liberalized government in this state."

"We must have a national old age pension plan on an equitable basis and a plan that we can pay for. Do not sabotage the National Administration's program by splitting your vote. Go to the polls and vote Democratic right down the line."

"Solely to Discredit"

John Gee Clark, chairman of the State Democratic Central Committee, introduced by Chairman J. Wayne Harrison, replying to charges that he was a member of the Communist party, said:

"I never belonged to the Communist party and they knew when I never had been a member when they made the charges."

Referring to the charge that Ellis Patterson, candidate for lieutenant-governor is a Communist, Clark cited his record revealing that Patterson's great grandfather was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence and appointed to the Supreme Court bench by George Washington and declared "the attack on Patterson is made because the opposition is desperate for something with which they can discredit the Democratic party."

Dr. R. W. Carrigan, speaking on behalf of Carl Kegley, write-in candidate for attorney-general who was called to San Francisco yesterday and could not attend the meeting, painted the Republican party as an organization that "dare not" quarrel with the platform of the Democratic party and has resorted to accusing its sponsors as "reds."

"The Republican platform," he declared, "is like the hoop skirts of olden days—it covers everything and touches nothing."

SET RITES FOR LAGUNA BUS LINE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(WSN)

The Interstate Commerce commission issued an order today approving transportation of express over the Laguna Beach-Santa Ana Stage line at rates corresponding to the value of the express carried.

Under the commission's ruling, the shipper must declare the value of his shipment in writing. The motor carrier's base rate will apply to shipments when those shipments do not exceed $50 in value for 100 pounds or less, or do not exceed 50 cents per pound in value for shipments in excess of 100 pounds.

On shipments not taking the base rate, a charge of 10 cents for each $100 of fraction thereof on value in excess of the valuation to which the base rate applies, will be made. The commission approves rates based on a "released valuation," or the valuation determined by the shipper in writing at the time of shipment, as a kind of insurance on the property carried.

Property insured. The motor carriers are required to insure property when their licenses are approved, and such insurance operates mainly for the benefit of the shipper. In order to compensate carriers for the risk of carrying higher valued shipments, highest rates the prescribed when asked for.

The average area of the forty-eight states of the Union is 63,057 square miles. Georgia, with 59,265 square miles, most nearly approaches the average.

TOWNSEND - JACKSON FOR SHERIFF CLUB OF ORANGE COUNTY

We, the fact finding committee of the Townsend-Jackson for Sheriff Club of Orange County, after having made a careful and conscientious study of the political situation, relative to the selection of a Sheriff for Orange County, report as follows:

1. That the incumbent, Logan Jackson, has actively and courageously enforced the laws in Orange County.

2. That the efficiency of his office has been the highest of any Sheriff of Orange County, as evidenced by the number of convictions as compared to the arrests made. The average for the eight years has been 80 per cent, starting at 70 per cent in 1931, when he entered office, and rising to 90 per cent in 1937. There has been a total of 5788 arrests and 4425 convictions in the eight years.

3. That the $100,000 suit brought by the Board of Supervisors does not question the honesty or integrity of the Sheriff, as all previous sheriffs have handled the funds in the same manner, seven Grand Juries have commended the management of his office the Federal Government has rated the Orange County Jail one of the best eight jails in the United States; that the District Attorney has ruled that the funds have been handled properly, and that many counties throughout the state have, and are now following the same procedure.

4. That it is our belief that the best interest of Orange County will be preserved and advanced by the re-election of

LOGAN JACKSON AS SHERIFF

Jimmie Fidler in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 7.—I don't want to start any international complications, but the abject awe with which the English regards England and the English burns me to a crisp.

The cads of this world, in the opinion of our picture-makers, all come from Germany or America—preferably America. Paramount merely did the usual thing when it changed the nationality of the villain in "Bulldog Drummond in Africa" from English, as specified in the script, to America. The reason: Great Britain wouldn't like it. Personally, I don't give a hang if they portray an American as a house, because we have more than a few lice in this country—but it does annoy me that they are afraid to give an Englishman the same rating. It also annoys me that English directors, actors and writers are given a distinct edge over Americans in most studios.

Don't misunderstand me—I like the English, but they are, after all, subject to the same weaknesses as other men. I would like to see on the screen, now and then, a real 14-karat English rotter—a type which needs acknowledgment no peers. And I think the public might be able to stomach a few pictures without Americans in the meanie roles.

Hollywood calls Sonja Henie, its No. 1 money-winner, the luckiest girl in picture history—and I might

U. S. ISSUES PRADO FIELD OFFICE BIDS

WANDERING DUCK CAPTURED AS COPS TIGHTEN DRAGNET

Under the "unfailing courtesy" system recently stressed in the local police department, many extra-curricular jobs have fallen to the lot of the Laguna Beach policemen. With great zest, they have responded in full measure.

Where three autos were reported lost, four were recovered. Two lost children were found and returned home before their absence was discovered. Snakes have been dispatched; mules rounded up, while promenading down the highway; and other things not generally associated with nightsticks, gun and manacles, have been attended to with neatness and dispatch.

Strays From Home
High—or low—note in something or other was reached when a report was received, setting forth that one handsome Muscovy duck (genus "Moschata Cairina," in case it matters) was reported strayed from the Hilledge drive home of Paul Colburn, vice principle of the local high school. A duck dragnet was speedily thrown out; but, fortified by a high school education, the duck cleverly avoided apprehension awhile.

He floundered downtown, causing some comment, and so startling several hardened pub-chawlers that no less than three immediately swore off hard liquor, one going so far as to petition a nearby gin bottle. In due course, the duck found himself outside the water district offices, where an ornamental pond attracted his attention. Into it he went; but, unfortunately, the pond was empty, having been drained only that morning.

Score Another Success
Meanwhile, the dragnet was tightening, and Officers Paul

NOV. 14 SET AS OPENING DATE

Bids have been issued by army engineers for construction of a field office building at the new Prado Dam, it was learned today in a dispatch to The Register from the war department at Washington, D. C.

November 14 has been set as opening date for the bids, it was said. The bids will be opened in the office of the district army engineer at Los Angeles, but award of contract must be approved by the South Pacific division engineer, at San Francisco.

Near Dam Site
The structure will be built near the site of the proposed dam on the Santa Ana river, about 18 miles northeast of Santa Ana. Offices, a laboratory, a vault and storeroom will be provided in the frame structure.

The successful contractor will be obliged to put work under way within 10 days after orders to begin are issued, and he must complete the building, a water supply system and a sewage disposal plant within 45 days, or be subject to damages of $10 a day.

Wage Scale Included
According to a scale of minimum wages set up for the job by the labor department, plumbers, bricklayers and cement finishers must be paid at least $1.25 an hour; carpenters and painters, $1.10; electricians, $1.12-1-2; concrete mixer operators and roofers, $1; and laborers, 62 1-2 cents.

These wages will be paid both to regular workmen and to relief workers, whom the contractor will be asked to give as much work as possible.

Hellllp!

How did I ever get in this mess...

and what do I do about it?—that seems the gist of Ernestine Bazemore's thoughts as she and a six-foot pine snake pose for the cameraman at Birmingham-Southern College in Birmingham, Ala. Oswald, the snake, is one of a collection owned by the college snake fancier, Martin Knowlton.

MERRIAM INVITED TO ATTEND PORT SEA SCOUT RENDEZVOUS

Governor Frank F. Merriam has been invited to inspect 1000 Sea Scouts who will "rendezvous" at Newport harbor November 25, 26 and 27.

Every section of California as well as centers in Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Oregon and Washington will have Sea Scouts present. Governor Merriam inspected the 1936 rendezvous.

Friendship Glow Pervades "Y" With Letter

A warm glow of friendship and sincere appreciation of Santa Ana and its environs pervaded the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. today, it was revealed by Ralph C. Smedley, executive secretary of the organization.

The reason was a letter that was received from L. B. Melville, well-to-do farmer near Springfield, O., who has been a guest at the Santa Ana "Y" for the last five years. Melville's letter to Smedley said: "Please reserve my usual room. Will be with you not later than Nov. 10, and my check is enclosed. I hope you had an agreeable summer, as with myself. There's lots to talk about these days, but that can keep until I reach Santa Ana, where I always enjoy myself. With best regards to yourself and my good friends of your staff. . . .

"The letter came from El Paso," Smedley explained. "And it sure is good to get messages like that from old friends who really like to visit our city."

Sea scouting has grown considerably as a result of these annual gatherings. National headquarters now recognizes their importance and has delegated national officers from the Atlantic seaboard to attend, advise, and see how the western rendezvous, largest in the country, is handled.

Sea Scout groups will travel overland by auto, trucks, trains, and in other ways. Many units will journey by boat, using their own training ships for the cruise. All Scouts and officers will be under canvas at the municipal campground, Newport Beach, with complete kitchen equipment to handle all cooking. This was done by the Scouts.

Breakfast will be served at 7 a. m. From then on every minute of the day will be filled. Contests include small boat sailing, cutter pulling, life saving drill, shipwreck race, swimming, hoisting the scuttle-butt, using the breeches-buoy, etc. Contests are for crews, for ships and for individuals. Entertainment will include cruising, camp fires, community singing, movies, dancing and other features.

Beavers were extinct in Illinois and wild turkeys in Wisconsin, so the U. S. Forestry Service engineered a trade: a truckload of turkeys for a truckload of beavers.

JURY PANEL IS DRAWN BY CLERK

A new jury panel for superior court trial service during the next three months was drawn Saturday County Clerk Basil J. Smith, the panel of 50 men and women being instructed to report for duty November 14 at 10 a. m. in department two of the court.

Those drawn were Amelia C. Peck, P. D. Pearce, Mrs. V. C. Patterson, John Parker, E. M. Pettrifis, India E. McDaniel, Mrs. Walter Neal, Bertha Young, Mrs. H. B. Van Dien, J. Roy Smith, Evelyn E. Sutherland, Estelle W. Smith, H. B. Anderson, Merabel J. Angne, John F. Allen, Ransler J. Baker, Martha Barman, F. W. Bishop, Louise Braman.

Others on List
Marjorie Couden, Julia A. Cusick, Herbert Condy, H. E. Carter, C. R. Cook, Arley Leck, William Law, Hermine Bayha Lowe, R. H. Lee, W. E. Lovelace, Jessie Helm, George Higgins, Sara Johnston Haddon, Mabel C. Felts, Mrs. E. Opal Freese, Florence Ferrel, Elgin E. Forster, Mrs. Hazel Francis, Frances B. Welch, Clara Whitson and Gertrude Green.

SWEATER STOLEN
Theft of a sweater and torn, tan leather jacket valued at $1, was reported by the victim, E. R. Urbine, 1123 North Olive, today. The theft occurred late yesterday afternoon from a parked car.

Blinker Lights May Be Changed To Orange Hue

The little red blinker lights which flash at downtown intersections when the large red and green signal lights are off may be changed to an orange hue soon, according to Councilman Ernest H. Layton, street commissioner, today.

His investigation followed complaint that the little red blinkers confuse motorists who usually slow down, then drive on through the intersection or make a turn. As a matter of fact, the law requires motorists to stop for all red lights but the blinker is so small many fail to stop for it. Usually the blinkers operate only late at night.

Since downtown intersections are usually well-traveled in all directions, orange-colored "slow-down" blinkers should be placed for east-west traffic as well as for north-south traffic, complaints contend.

Councilman Layton will take the problem up with city council.

INTEREST IS HIGH IN LEGION CAMPAIGN

Interest in the membership campaign being waged by Santa Ana Post 131, American Legion, ran high today, according to Commander Glenn Cave, who this morning received a report from H. R. Brinkerhoff, membership chairman.

Already the efforts of the two teams working in the campaign, under the direction of Ralph Mitchell and Charles Neer, have brought the roster to nearly twice that of last year and have given Santa Ana the largest post south of Los Angeles county.

As an incentive to members to pay their dues before Armistice Day, the post will award a gold pocket piece to all members who are paid in their 1938 dues.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

Police Chief James S. Bouldin, Anaheim, today submitted a letter of appreciation to Sheriff Logan Jackson and his men for assistance given him last Friday night in directing traffic in Anaheim during the Halloween celebration. "I trust that I may reciprocate some time," the chief said.

AN OPEN LETTER...

to ALL who desire really "the BEST in MEAT"

HOW many times have you said to yourself . . . and yes, aloud to others . . . "My, how I'd like to be able to buy a really delicious steak in this town," or maybe, "my kingdom for a real cut of beef like I used to get back east," or even you might go so far as to say, "You just can't buy good meat out here in California."

Well, we are happy to announce that your wishes and desires are now about to be fulfilled . . . for today we open a meat market that will handle and sell only that kind of quality meat that you so desire. This is no idle boast . . . it is a fact, a fact that we will backup with a "double your money back guarantee." It is our ideal and aim to buy only the finest quality of beef, lamb and pork that money can buy . . . and to resell them to you in individual cuts as you like it. As price will be no factor in our effort to secure the best, so of necessity our prices to you will be slightly higher than for ordinary meat. We are going to fulfill the demands of those people of Orange county who have not been able to secure "the best in meats" . . . and if you are one of those so woefully neglected in the past, we cordially invite you to this new, yet unpretentious meat market known as the TWO-O-TWO MEAT SHOPPE, located in the Empire Market in the Grocery Dept. Let us serve your needs just once . . . and you'll always come back for the BEST in MEATS.

Sorority Dinner Party Pays Observance to Founders' Day

Observing the thirteenth anniversary of the founding of Kappa Delta Phi sorority, members of the Santa Ana chapter took part Friday night in a Founders' Day dinner party which found pleasant setting at Danigers.

Chrysanthemums massed in the center of the table, and the sorority insignia on the blue and gold place cards gave emphasis to the sorority colors. At the place of Miss Marcene Cook, chapter president, and a charter member, was a pretty corsage in the colors.

Program features included a tribute to the founders, another to the dozen original chapters, and also to the national president, Mrs. Charles Woodfill had the principal paper of the program, presenting an interesting history of the organization.

Chapter members present were Miss Marcene Cook, Miss Florence Harmon and Mesdames Meredith Crumley, Walter Starke, Frances Lacy and Charles Woodfill. Pledges present were the Misses Phyllis Hefke, Florence Wasson, Fern Anderson, Mildred Pearson, Nadine Pennington, Mildred Crowe and Lorraine Wheeler.

Recent Bride Receives Many Gifts at Miscellaneous Shower

Entertaining at an afternoon party in her home, 1013 Cypress avenue, Mrs. Virgil L. Clem paid a pre-nuptial compliment to her son's charming young bride, Mrs. Louis Clem, the former Pauline Meredith of Brea.

The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Drucilla Clem, applied a brilliant autumnal color scheme to her decorations, amidst which tables were placed for such games as Chinese checkers and pick-up sticks. In the interval between games and the refreshment hour, guests wrote their favorite recipes for the young housewife to use. Bright garden flowers were placed to center each linen-spread table for serving a two-course refreshment menu.

As the climax of the enjoyable afternoon the new Mrs. Clem had the pleasure of opening a collection of be-ribboned packages heaped on the dining room table. The gifts, miscellaneous in nature, were chosen for use and beauty in the home which the young people have established at 504 North Olive street, since their marriage on October 8.

Mrs. Clem and Miss Drucilla included on the guest list with their honoree, her mother and sister, Mrs. J. W. Meredith and Miss Maxine Meredith, Brea; Mrs. Paul E. Turner, Long Beach; Mrs. K. C. Clem, Los Angeles; Mrs. Charles C. Schultz and Miss Phyllis Jeanne Schultz, Torrance; Mrs. Fred D. Lentz, Orange; Mrs. Ross Boyd Jr., Tustin; Mesdames Marcus Lassiter, C. E. Clem, E. R. Clem, C. F. Hamilton and Edward P. Marble, Santa Ana.

V. F. W. Auxiliary

Corsage bouquets were presented to V. F. W. past presidents in attendance at Friday night's meeting of Ernest L. Kellogg auxiliary V. F. W. in Knights of Pythias hall, where past presidents night was observed. Mrs. Ruth O'Malley presided.

In the honored group were Mary Adrain, Janie Kelsey, Effie Hawley, Esther Hendrickson, Irene Stewart and Janita Cozad. They filled floor team chairs during the evening. Presidents and past presidents present from county auxiliaries were Zephia Pearson, Nina Walters, Clea Messer, Gladys Bower, Fullerton; Laura Torman, Anaheim; Olive Hadley, Orange.

Initiation was conducted for Mrs. Arthur G. Cole and Mrs. William Harding. Mrs. Paul Cozad, who has been ill, was welcomed to the meeting. The charter was draped in memory of Luella Randel, first president of the auxiliary.

The auxiliary submitted the name of Mrs. Hendrickson to the department for consideration as a candidate for council member in the second district.

Plans were made to attend mem-

PATTERN 4926
By ANNE ADAMS

Here's excitement—a magic design that promises you not only an afternoon frock but also a party gown! Anne Adams has given Pattern 4926 "looks" of charm and chic, although she makes it easy to sew! Just picture yourself in the graceful daytime frock—its waist pointed up with shirring, its panels all soft folds, its neckline high and its sleeves daintily short! For this version, satin or matelasse crepe would be lovely. But if it's warmth you're after, you'll choose a new wool, and the long-sleeved style. Then, for the very alluring holiday-dance dress, pick lustrous silk (you might even have the panels contrast—a slimming way to use Color!).

Pattern 4926 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16, afternoon dress, takes 3-3/4 yards 39 inch fabric.

October Wedding News Announced Today

Announcement was made today of the marriage Saturday, October 22 in Broadway Wedding chapel of a former Santa Ana couple, Miss Evelyn Hope Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Jacobs, 2627 South Main street and Eugene V. Johnson of San Fernando.

An intimate family group assembled for the rites. The bride wore a sheer velvet gown in black trimmed in white silk lace, while her corsage bouquet was of gardenias. Her sister, Miss Audrey Jacobs was maid of honor.

Immediately following the ceremony, the new Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left for their home in San Fernando, where the bridegroom is with a construction company.

Weir-Baxter Wedding Plans Told at Duo Birthday Affair

Guests assembled last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baxter, 1615 Bush street for a celebration of birthday anniversaries, of the daughter of the home, Miss Margaret Jean Baxter and her fiancé, Thomas S. Weir were informed of the 1939 wedding plans of the young couple.

It was at the close of an evening of Chinese checkers that the romantic news was told. The hostess brought in a large birthday cake on whose frosting was inscribed "Margaret and Tommie; February 16, 1939." Mr. Weir is son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Weir.

With this added romantic theme, the refreshment interval was an

LATE NEWS FROM ORANGE

Mrs. Harold Post Shower Honoree

ORANGE, Nov. 7.—Honoring Mrs. Harold R. Post, the former Miss Ann Schubert, four hostesses entertained Friday night at the home of Mrs. Don Guldge, 247 North Maplewood street. Hostesses were Mrs. Guldge, Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Mary Madison and Miss Virginia Andrich.

The main attraction in the decorations was an arrangement of orange and blue bird of paradise blossoms in a copper bowl. Other flowers were arranged in pink and white booties and perambulators. Games were played during the evening and the first prize was awarded Mrs. Post, while Mrs. A. C. Myracle won second. Refreshments of chicken salad, hot rolls, ice cream, cake and hot chocolate were served on trays, each of which was decorated with a pink and white bootie filled with almonds and mints.

Many lovely gifts were presented the honoree by the following invited guests: Mesdames Ernest Hagen, Harold Sipherd, A. W. Ames, Joe Wilson Jr., Victor Wood, A. C. Myracle, Genevieve Post, Henry Appel, Jack Sanford, Edwin Case, C. Guldge, Misses Lydia Ruff, Flo Ruff, Alice Stoner, Grace Trueblood, and Florence Leightfuss, all of Orange; Mrs. Gertrude Adams, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Art Muehler, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Jerry Post, of Redlands, and Miss Georgia Rae of Fitzgerald, of Anaheim.

Church School Ready To Open

ORANGE, Nov. 7.—Announcement is made of the opening of the Orange Community Standard Leadership Training school at the First Presbyterian church Monday at 7 o'clock, the first of a series of classes to be held on Mondays and Wednesdays for the coming three weeks. The Rev. Myron C. Cole, pastor of the church, is dean of the school. The event is sponsored by the Orange Ministerial union.

R. C. Patton is registrar and Mrs. Wilbur Woods is treasurer and librarian. "How to Administer a Program of Christianity" will be the subject taught by Dr. Clifford A. Cole, director of education of Christian churches. Mrs. C. L. Eschelman of Whittier will teach "Guiding Elementary Children in Christian Growth"; Sheldon Swenson, "Understanding Youth"; and the Rev. Arthur T. Hobson, "Jesus and His Teachings."

The speaker on the opening night will be Dr. Daniel Webster Kurtz, whose topic will be "Our Needs in Christian Education." Supper will be served at 6:15. Dr. Kurtz will speak at 7:15, with classes at 8:25 p.m.

Hold Last Rites For Edward Gould

ORANGE, Nov. 7.—Funeral services were held at the C. W. Coffey funeral chapel Saturday afternoon for Edward E. Gould, 75, victim of an automobile accident, who passed away Thursday at St. Joseph's hospital. Services were conducted by the Rev. Arthur T. Hobson, pastor of the First Methodist church, of which Mr. Gould was a member.

Miss Mae Kimball and Miss Ellen Sufferin sang two duets, with Mrs. R. M. Warren as accompanist. "Holy, Holy, Holy" and "Saved by Grace." Fallbearers were C. J. Baum, Norwalk, Charles L. Mathews, J. F. Campbell, W. E. Winterowd, C. C. Bennett and O. R. Stevens. Interment was made in the I. O. O. F. plot of the Santa Ana cemetery.

Mr. Gould is survived by his widow, Mrs. Abbie M. Gould, of Orange; a daughter, Mrs. Lory Gould Vaughn, Honolulu, former supervisor of music in Santa Ana schools; one sister, Mrs. Agnes Van Fleet, and one niece, Mrs. Mabel Baxter, both of Hillsdale, Mich.

Silverado Group Told of Indians

SILVERADO, Nov. 7.—Mrs. May W. Borum, of Tustin, was guest speaker at the meeting of Silverado P.-T. A. Friday evening. Mrs. Borum lived on the Navajo Indian reservation for 15 years, serving as matron in a large school there. She was dressed in costume and gave a most interesting talk on life on the reservation.

Mrs. W. C. Howell was elected secretary-treasurer of the association. Mrs. M. E. Armstrong read an original poem on "Thanksgiving." It was announced that another of the successful "play nights" when the whole community is invited to join in table games and refreshments at the school house, will be held the evening of November 15. The monthly study group will meet November 21. Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. J. Arborn and Mrs. W. C. Howell.

Epworth League Holds Discussion

ORANGE, Nov. 7.—Twenty young people of the High School Epworth league of the First Methodist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Forest Talmadge last night. Miss Blanche Patton led a discussion on the topic, "Our Place in Community Life" at the league meeting at the church which preceded the social gathering in the Talmadge home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Robinson are advisors of the group. Games were played and group singing enjoyed during the evening. Refreshments were served buffet style from a lace spread table where a color scheme of pale yellow and deep maroon was emphasized in the appointments as well as in flowers used about the rooms.

Similar meetings are held by the group every other Sunday.

D. U. V. Arranges Entry In Parade

ORANGE, Nov. 7.—Members of Mary A. Logan tent, D. U. V. met Friday afternoon following their regular pot luck luncheon to plan their entry in the Armistice day parade. Mrs. W. W. Perry presided over the meeting and reminded members that the tent will hold a bazaar December 1. It was announced that nominations for officers will be received from the floor at the next meeting of the tent.

A special luncheon guest at noon was Bernice Wood, Civil war veteran, who spends each winter in Orange. He was accompanied by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, who are visiting him from their home in Wyoming.

FEAR TROUBLE FOR NATION'S 'BIG EIGHT'

BY HARRY FERGUSON
(United Press Staff Editor)

NEW YORK—Eight major football teams were undefeated and untied today, and all of them are hereby advised to enjoy it while they can because the week-end schedule indicates somebody is going to get ambushed.

There isn't a soft spot in sight for the eight who have had luck on their side this season—Notre Dame, Texas Christian, Santa Clara, Duke, Iowa State, Dartmouth, Oklahoma and Tennessee. All meet tough opponents this week.

Allowing for the fact that nobody is able to see all the leading teams in one season, it would appear from the records and from reports of observers throughout the country that the undefeated eight should rank about this way: 1—Texas Christian, 2—Notre Dame, 3—Tennessee, 4—Duke, 5—Dartmouth, 6—Santa Clara, 7—Oklahoma, 8—Iowa State.

List May Be Scrambled
Don't be surprised if by next Sunday evening that list is scrambled out of all recognition because the schedule sends—

Texas Christian against Texas, a team strong enough to have at least one good game in it; Notre Dame against Minnesota, still a powerhouse despite its three-point defeat by Northwestern;

Tennessee against Vanderbilt, which will be primed to deflate Rose Bowl hopes; Dartmouth against Cornell, a big, fast outfit that hasn't yet risen to the heights of which it is capable;

Santa Clara against St. Mary's, a tricky sophomore team that may turn out to be the best in the country next year;

Duke against Syracuse, an unpredictable squad that looks like a whirlwind on Saturday and a bush league outfit the next;

Oklahoma against Missouri, which was good enough to beat Michigan State;

Iowa State against Kansas State, which has shown power throughout a hard schedule.

Top news of last weekend was the fall of Pittsburgh and California from the dizzy heights. Oddly enough, there seems to have been a general feeling around the country that Pitt and California, two great undefeated teams, were in for a licking.

Carnegie Tech, conqueror of Pitt, displayed power in its game with Notre Dame and has been pointing for the Panthers all season. Even persons who swore they would never bet against Pitt seemed to be carrying a hunch that Saturday was the time. Dr. Jock Sutherland was going to lead the panther to the well once too often.

Everybody Had Hunch
The belief that Southern California, a young team that has been developing fast in the last three weeks, was going to spoil California's record was even stronger. Almost all reports from the west last week hinted at a Southern California victory. The defeat of California left the choice of the Western representative in the Rose Bowl game way up in the air.

Southern California has no time to start worrying about the Rose Bowl, for it still has Washington, U. C. L. A. and Notre Dame to take care of on its regular season schedule.

But it remained for the east to supply the prize upset of the week—little Rutgers' victory over Princeton. On past performance Princetown looked three or four touchdowns better than Rutgers. The middle west made two contributions to the day's upheaval, Missouri's 6-0 victory over Michigan State and Wisconsin's 20 to 13 defeat of a strong Northwestern squad.

In Iowa, Southwest, Southern Methodist finally got going and Texas A. & M., a far better team on this season's record, came to at the end of the game to find itself on the short end.

SANTA CLARA NOSES OUT SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO—(UP)—Santa Clara remained among the undefeated, untied football teams today but only after little San Francisco University had given the Broncos a breath-taking squeeze.

Back home for their first game since losing to Michigan State 7-6, the Broncos lacked their usual precise blocking and hard churning and the lighter U. S. F. eleven held them to a 7-0 victory.

is any sure sign of superiority. If the try must be kept in the rules why not make it a real one by putting the ball on the 30-yard line?

Two other prominent Southern coaches who agree with Alexander are Frank Thomas of Alabama and Joel Hunt of Georgia. Thomas thinks the extra point absurd despite the fact that in 16 years of coaching he yet has to lose a game because of it. Hunt would like to see it go, but believed that the spectators are so accustomed to it that they would object to its being written out of the game.

One Inch From Pay Dirt But This Trojan Finally Made It

This was one of those "almost" drives that Southern California carried on all day against the heretofore undefeated California Golden Bears—and finally dumped California out of the Coast Conference lead and Rose Bowl groove by a 13-7 victory before 95,000 fans. In this particular play, Ronnie Lansdell, sensational Trojan quarterback, is shown hurtling over the California line for one yard—but stopped one inch from a touchdown. In addition to fine passing and running, Lansdell scored the first USC touchdown.

BACA BATTLES ROCK TONIGHT

Starting to taper off his amateur boxing career preparatory to turning professional within a few weeks, Fernie Baca battles Joe Rock of Long Beach tonight at the Orange County Athletic club.

According to Matchmaker Frankie Lockhart, Rock is probably the toughest fighter Baca has ever met. If he beats Rock it will be almost definite proof that he is ready for the professionals. If he loses, his debut in faster company will have to be postponed.

In the second half of a double main event, Wayne Penn, the smiling blonde kid from Seal Beach, returns to the O. C. A. C. arena to battle Tino Sanchez of Los Angeles.

The semi-windup will feature Johnny Ericson of Wilmington, a tough fighter, against "Chuck" Laws of Los Angeles.

Other bouts: Yankee Solis, Wilmington, vs. Johnny Taylor, Los Angeles, 150 pounds; Lupe Placentia, Santa Ana, vs. Al Higgs, Los Angeles, 135 pounds; Benny Garcia, Santa Ana, vs. "Chuck" Wilcox, Long Beach, 125 pounds; Lon Chaney, Long Beach, vs. Al Davis, Los Angeles, 150 pounds; Gil Lopez, Wilmington, vs. Kid Buddy, Los Angeles, 134 pounds.

Bill Foote, who is champion of the Santa Ana Country club as well as coach of the Saint football squad, is not defending his golf honors in the tournament that opens this week. Neither will he be available for the Southern National Night Ball leagues were to have held their annual meeting at Anaheim last week but couldn't muster a quorum so President Jimmie Heffron postponed it until next Monday night, Nov. 14.

Don Coach Bill Cook says he believes that new cone cleats on football shoes are responsible for many of the injuries to athletes this season. In this he concurs with Howard Jones, who insists that his gridders wear the old-style box cleats. Cook contends that the long, hard rubber cone cleat does not allow enough "give" when a player makes a sharp turn, causing players to wrench their weak ankles and knees. He has ordered the box cleats for Lynn Arnett, Grover Miller and several others who have had knee and ankle trouble.

Riverside papers credited Riverside with a "moral victory" in holding Santa Ana to a scoreless tie. After watching that one, this correspondent would be inclined to give the Dons a "moral victory" for holding Riverside even. The Bengals certainly should have won that one. And that San Mateo win over San Bernardino doesn't augur well going to take any chances. He is going to concentrate on holding that advantage. He is afraid to pass lest an interception lead to a score, a successful conversion, and a defeat. The same is true of lateral devices which the customers like. A six-point lead shackles the offense of the team that has it, and so the customer is treated to line bucks and third down punts.

Alexander gave this year's game between Duke and Georgia Tech as a perfect example of how a six-point lead could spoil a game for the spectators.

"Duke scored on us early, but failed to convert," he related. "As soon as Duke got their six-point lead, I told my second to crowd right in and not to worry about any Duke passes. I knew Wallace Wade would have his boys bust the line and kick on second or third down and take no chances. As a result, Duke didn't do anything for the rest of the game and the customers were short-changed on their football."

"If the extra point were eliminated, it would double the thrills. I am all for throwing it out, and would certainly vote the way if the matter should come up."

Alexander can't see the harm in tie games. In fact, he believes—and strongly—that a tie is the sensible and just finish for a contest between two evenly matched football teams.

"I can see no great satisfaction, for coach or team, in winning by that one point from a rival who matched you in every department of play have the one that called for that extra point," he said.

"Games should be fought out, and the other fellow, and you can't tell me that the ability to get that extra point

BLADES NAMED BOSS OF CARDS

ST. LOUIS—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals today rewarded Ray Blades for 16 years of loyal service by elevating him to the helm of the Gas House gang.

In naming Blades for the vacancy created by the dismissal of Frankie Frisch, President Sam Breadon said: "After carefully considering the many candidates for the position, I believe I have picked the most capable man I could find."

It was the first time the St. Louis organization had chosen one of its own products to lead the Cards. Blades, who has managed the Cardinals-owned Rochester team of the International league since 1935, was given a one-year contract. Terms were not disclosed. Mike Gonzalez who temporarily replaced Frisch, Sept. 11, will assist the new dealer as coach.

TROJANS FACE WASHINGTON'S HUSKIES NEXT

BY JAMES SULLIVAN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SAN FRANCISCO—(UP)—The boys were climbing back on the University of Southern California's lead wagon today as the Trojan warhorse, once more devastating force after four lean years, poised again toward the Rose Bowl.

The few who haven't climbed aboard since Troy's 13-7 win over supposedly unbeatable California are waiting to see what happens Saturday when S. C. meets that other early season favorite, Washington, at Seattle.

Even if S. C. wins that one, as it should, there will be a few still reluctant to join the parade until after S. C. plays a dangerous U. C. L. A. team Nov. 27.

Bears Humiliated
Once over those two hurdles, the Trojans can be proclaimed Pacific Coast champions and Rose Bowl representatives. But to all practical purposes, they have achieved both those honors Saturday in bringing to an end California's long winning streak and humbling the Bears as no opponent has humiliated them since "Stub" Allison became head coach at Berkeley. Not even their first game defeat by Alabama or the outcome of their early December game with mighty Notre Dame would alter the Trojan choice if they get by all coast rivals.

The S. C. attack blew California right out of the park before 95,000 fans who formed the season's largest football crowd to date. Twenty-one first downs, at least six threats to score, and a long game one-sided. The Trojan defense stopped Vic Botari for the first time in the able young man's career and yielded only two first downs to the Bears.

While the Trojans were reaching their peak to give California its first defeat in 15 games, Washington was showing great improvement in beating Stanford 10-7.

Stanford comes out of its third straight setback to face the well-traveled Oregon State team which battled California on almost even terms its last time out.

Oregon Next For California
Oregon, back in the winning track again after stopping Idaho, 19-6 comes down to Berkeley to meet a University of California team which might be demoralized and which certainly is badly bruised.

These three games from the conference program. Two other teams go outside. U. C. L. A. boasting a three-game winning streak after a 21-0 conquest of Washington State, tackles the Wisconsin team which Saturday beat Northwestern. Washington State, beaten off six times in conference play, plays Idaho.

Among the independents, the big game of the year is on the books with St. Mary's, coming home from a 3-0 setback at Fordham, meeting the still unbeaten-untied Santa Clara eleven. Santa Clara won its sixth of the season and its 15th in a row Sunday by beating University of San Francisco, 7-0.

This week's program offers three days of football, with a festive day holiday Friday contributing. The holiday games include U. S. F. vs. Fresno; Texas Tech vs. Gonzaga; San Jose State vs. Redlands, and Montana State vs. Montana in the copper state's annual "big natural".

One of the most interesting on Saturday's program finds College of Pacific, Far Western conference leaders, playing University of Chicago, where Pacific's coach A. A. Stagg headed the gridiron forces.

Last Saturday's football scores: U. S. C. 13, California 7; Washington 10, Stanford 7; U. C. L. A. 21, Washington State 0; Oregon 19, Idaho 6; Arizona 7, Centenary 6; Fordham 31, St. Mary's 0; San Jose State 20, Santa Barbara 0; Stanford 19, 13, California 19.

Take Serum By Plane To Ailing Coach

OAKLAND—(UP)—A. J. Sturznegger, U. C. L. A. assistant football coach suffering from influenza, arrived with the Los Angeles-bound U. C. L. A. football squad here today.

Dr. George Berg, team physician, reportedly administered an anti-pneumonia serum to Sturznegger while the train stopped at the station. The serum was ordered by Dr. Berg at Dunsmuir, when Sturznegger developed a high fever. The serum was brought here from Los Angeles in an airplane, and was consigned to the Southern Pacific station master.

Sturznegger, assistant to Head Coach Bill Spaulding, was stricken Saturday while the squad was at Pullman, Wash., where the Bruins played Washington State.

Dr. Berg said Sturznegger's condition was not critical and that the serum had been ordered as a precautionary measure.

LEVERMANN, NEHRIG LOST TO DON SQUAD

"After looking over our list of cripples I'd say we'll be lucky to give Burt Heiser's Chaffey Panthers even a good workout Friday night," Coach Bill Cook said today. "We received the worst physical battering of the season at Riverside Friday night."

The Dons' two first string tackles, Cy Levermann and Gilbert Nehrig, play against the Panthers because of injuries received in the Riverside game. "Gil" Bristow, the Dons' No. 2 center and rated by Coach Cook as one of the most promising freshmen on the entire squad was taken to St. Joseph hospital Friday night and operated on for appendicitis. He will be out for the remainder of the season.

Levermann's injury was more serious than was first thought. The Don physician found that several small bones in Cy's hand had been broken and that it will be necessary to put his hand in a cast for at least two weeks.

Nehrig, the other ranking tackle, severely wrenched his knee.

Other members of the squad are suffering from minor injuries but Coach Cook hopes to be able to field a team that will give the Panthers plenty of trouble despite the injury problem.

This will be one of the most important games of the season from Chaffey's viewpoint and a treacherous throng of Ontario rooters will come here for the holiday struggle. The Panthers have their best chance in years to win the conference championship but fear that Santa Ana has one good game in its system and might come up to it this week at Chaffey's expense.

agree if I hadn't witnessed a revealing incident the other day. Sonja and her partner were rehearsing an ice-cream for their exhibition tour. When she finished Sonja skated to the rinkside and demanded, "How was it? What do you think?" Several members of her chorus, with a frankness that implied long practice, said they didn't like the number—that its tempo was much too slow. And not only did the Henie listen deferentially but, after trying it again to make sure her critics were right, she ordered new music recorded and set herself the task of working out a new technique. Perhaps more people would be "lucky" if they had Sonja's passion for perfection.

MEMORIES THAT BLESS AND BURN: When Fatty Arbuckle set a new high in Filmmaking with a custom-tailored sedan that featured a built-in bar. When Ben Lyon took me for a plane ride—and then confessed that it had been his second solo flight. When I waited a good half-hour while my tailor measured Marie-Louise Dietrich for her first tuxedo. When Nelson Eddy—no so...o...disdainful of press attention—used to borrow a publicity office typewriter and concoct his own. When our beach party was completely disrupted by the discovery that the half-drowned lady dragged out of the surf by lifeguards was Pola Negri.

When Lew Cody, watching the auction of Mabel Normand's effects, burst into unashamed tears. When Joel McCrea won a bet from an English correspondent by bagging a mountain lion "within ten minutes drive" from Hollywood Boulevard. When Janet Gaynor, giving her first interview after "Seventh Heaven," became so emotional at mention of her step-father, who had just died, that she had to be sent home and couldn't work for two days.

The most venomous professional jealousy in town exists, not between two stars, but between two muscle-men, Jim Davies and Dick Klein, both of Paramount. Davies, a masseur, slaps excesses of poundage off stellar carcasses. Klein sweats it off via exercises. They have adjoining quarters in the same building, but they haven't spoken to one another for ten years. And their animosity has now reached such proportions that the studio recently remodelled the building to give each one a private entrance.

I've had on my desk for two weeks a memo to write a paragraph about something I saw at Twentieth Century-Fox. The script girl on a set complained because she had a date that night and she hadn't had time to get a needed manicure. Arleen Whelan—a hair-salon manicurist before she became a best-screen beat—overheard her, produced a manicure set from her make-up kit, and calmly went to work. The reason I didn't write the anecdote was that it sounded like a publicity effusion. Perhaps it still does, but nevertheless it's true. And I'm going to clap a little louder than usual when Arleen's next picture is reviewed.

Jack Haley, noted for his business acumen, has finally overreached himself. About a fortnight ago, his seven-year-old hopeful son, up business as a Christmas card salesman and Jack was so proud of his enterprise that he offered him a dime for every card sold. The sales have been enormous—and Jack has just discovered why. The cards cost five cents. Junior has been buying anyone who will take them—free—a two-cent premium. Copyright, 1938, McNaughton, Inc.

WANTED SOUGHT FOR SOVIET FUNDS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Earl Browder, Communist party head, once sought to obtain from the state department "diplomatic immunity" for funds to be sent here from Soviet Russia, a witness told the house committee investigating un-American activities today.

The witness was Dr. J. B. Matthews, former "fellow traveler" in the Communist united front. He did not explain the purpose of Browder's alleged attempt.

Matthews returned to the witness stand to amplify and verify his testimony before the committee last August when he caused a sensation by describing Shirley Temple as an unwitting dupe of the Communist party.

He said that Browder called upon him in his capacity as a "fellow traveler" in the movement to attempt to gain the state department "immunity"—possibly involving permission to import funds secretly.

The state department, however, said there was no such thing as diplomatic immunity so far as money was concerned. The term, it was said, applies only to diplomats personally and members of their families and staffs.

Matthews said he met Browder at Stewarts cafeteria in New York on Nov. 1, 1933 and it was during this meeting that Browder asked him to make the state department contact.

"I told Browder I knew no Communist in the department and would not get mixed up in any such activity," he said. He added, however, he had known a Communist named Noel Field on the state department staff in 1933.

Matthews also testified that David Sappos, chief economist of the National Labor Relations Board, had expressed Communist party doctrines as to strikes in his book "Left Wing Unionism," which Matthews said is used as a text in New York Communist schools.

Chairman Dies, D. Texas, charged today that the Works Progress Administration withheld from him an announcement regarding approval of two projects for New County, Texas, although the Texas senators were advised of it.

Dies said that an inquiry by his secretary brought the information there were no such projects on record.

THORONG ATTEND ANAHEIM REVIVAL SERVICE

L. A. MAN LEADS FIRST PROGRAM

More than 800 crowded into the White Temple Methodist church in Anaheim last night for the first of a two-week program of revival services conducted by the Rev. Bob Shuler, of Los Angeles.

Ten churches of Anaheim, headed by the Rev. U. S. Schauer, newly-elected president of the Ministerial association, are participating in the program. Ministers from most of the 10 occupied the platform at last night's service.

Power of Spirit

For his opening sermon the Rev. Mr. Shuler took the topic, "Not by Might or by Power, but By My Spirit, Saith the Lord of Hosts." Thoroughly topical in spirit, the sermon linked the power of the spirit to the power and worth of such 20th-century wonders as Boulder dam and the vast government power works.

The search of the entire world, the Rev. Shuler said, is now for power, and the world's problem is to see that it is well used.

Santa Ana Choir

A union church choir of more than 50 voices, led by Walter Tipton, of Santa Ana, provided special music. Featuring its program was the anthem, "All Hail Immanuel!" Assisting in manual details of the services is a corps of Y. M. C. A. members, directed by Secretary J. B. Wilbur.

The speaker announced that his special topic for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week would be "Prayer."

He will speak at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. each day through November 20, except Saturdays. Special mass meetings will be held at 2 o'clock the afternoon of November 13 and 20.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

TUSTIN, Nov. 7.—The fourth birthday anniversary of Norman Peruzzi was celebrated recently at his home, with his mother, Mrs. W. C. Peruzzi, as hostess. Refreshments of birthday cake and ice cream were enjoyed.

Those present with Mrs. Peruzzi and Norman were Mrs. Jerome Kidd and Belva Jane, Mrs. Jack Riley and son, Bob, Mrs. Hazel Fuller and sons, Leo and Donald, Mrs. Ray Auger and son, Jerry, and Carolyn Squires.

U. S. Speeds Navy Expansion Plans

WASHINGTON, Nev. 7.—(UP)—Announcement by President Roosevelt of the government's plan to reopen an ordnance plant and a navy yard, both in disuse for many years, emphasized today the administration's effort to get its naval expansion program into operation.

Navy and war department authorities declined to give details of the plan to reopen the $4,500,000 navy yard at Algiers, La., or the $22,000,000 word war ordnance plant at South Charleston, W. Va. Both these moves were revealed by the President at his press conference yesterday. Authorities here said that further details would have to come from Mr. Roosevelt. But they admitted that the plan to use again the Louisiana navy yard had been the subject of study by naval experts for many weeks.

MARKET HANDLES REAL BABY BEEF

"Little imagination is required to conjure the tantalizing aroma of a sizzling steak sliced deftly by the generous knife of Wilbur Bedford, well known Orange county meat cutter for the last 10 years, at his 202 Meat shoppe in the Empire market, Second and Broadway."

Genuine Baby Beef
This was the observation today of one of his assistants, who demonstrated enthusiasm over the fact that Bedford today introduced an innovation at the market by importing a huge stock of Armour's famous roller-stamped, Star-Brand genuine "Ba-Bey" beef.

"And it's baby beef from the word 'go,'" Bedford explained, "as readily can be seen from the bright red of the delightfully tender meat tissue and the characteristically red rib-bones."

"We're certain that all Santa Ana and Orange county residents who really like choice meats, which can be obtained at a price consistent with the high quality, will appreciate our move in ordering Armour's government-inspected specialty. We now are ready to specialize in the best grade of baby beef, baby spring lamb and fancy eastern pork."

High Grade Meat
"And we feel sure our efforts to please everyone with a real high-grade meat, which at all times will be fresh as well as properly aged, will be demonstrated in a quick uptrend in patronage."

The luscious cuts will be plattered in a refrigerated case facing the grocery department, temptingly displayed and ready for the meticulous inspection of the connoisseur of "the juicy steak," Bedford said.

TICKETS READY FOR S. A. BALLET

Season tickets for the remaining five programs of the Orange County Concert series and including the one Wednesday evening when the Ballet Caravan makes its first appearance here are now available at reduced rates for those who were unable to attend the first program, that presented Ezio Pinza, world famous basso.

That was the announcement today of C. L. Pritchard, concert committee chairman. The $6 season tickets can be purchased now for $5, the $5 tickets for $4.25 and the $3 student tickets for $2.50. Repertoire of the famous Ballet Caravan includes "Billy the Kid," "Filling Station" and "Air and Variations."

Those heretofore holding season tickets but whose tickets were not used at the Pinza concert are being granted a special privilege, Pritchard pointed out. They may bring one extra guest to a future program on the series for each season ticket held, he said.

GARDEN CLUB GROUP MEETS AT LA HABRA

Meeting at the Women's club at La Habra, members of Orange county Garden club heard a number of interesting talks Friday. Nearly 100 were present. Mrs. Fred Alden, county chairman, presided and reports of the Orange county fall flower show were given. W. C. Epler of Bellflower spoke on "How To Prepare Dahlias For Exhibition" and Willis Cadawaller of Santa Ana on "Pest Control."

Mrs. E. R. Jewell, of the Horticultural Institute of Los Angeles spoke on "Rotation of Plants For Continual Bloom." In her talk she brought out that proper planting bright spots of bloom are possible the year around. She suggested planting cinerarias, pansies, allysum, Virginia stocks and portulaca as well as shade-loving shrubs in shady places and the sun-loving annuals where there is no shade.

Exhibit Wall Baskets
Mrs. Jewell gave an interesting outline of establishment of out of door living rooms even in very small spaces and exhibited a number of wall baskets suitable for decoration of these rooms. The spring meeting of the group will be held some time in March with date and place to be announced later.

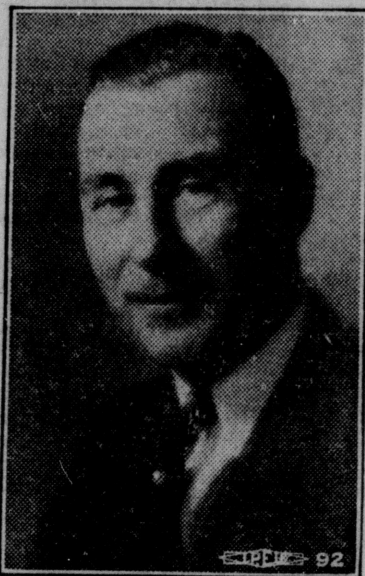

Bringing with her a collection of cuttings of vines, plants and shrubs, Mrs. J. E. Paul, district chairman of garden clubs, gave a description of each cutting and told of their growing habits and culture.

Keep the 19th District From Human Bankruptcy

CONGRESSMAN
HARRY R. SHEPPARD

WORKING CONGRESSMAN

Federal aid, secured in time of need by an able Representative, prevented human suffering—averted business failures and kept city and county governments from facing bankruptcy and collapse.

The issues in this campaign are clear cut and defined. The citizens of the 19th District must face the naked truth.

Progress, safety and security for the people on one hand or a return to the policy of "Individual American Ruggedness" (let the people starve it out) policy of the Hoover days with all of its heart-breaking human loss and insecurity.

There is no half-way path to choose. The roads are signed with the inevitable truth of experience on both sides.

We ask you, Mr. and Mrs. Citizen, what road will you choose? The road that is proven safe, or the one upon which we could not stand—

WITHOUT

WPA
Farm Loans
Industrial Loans
Citrus Loans
Flood Control
Pest Control
Forest Rehabilitation

Where would the thousands of merchants, professional men, farmers, citrus growers, bankers, and the vast army of the unemployed have been? Bankrupt—Ruined—Farms and Homes Gone—Business Chaos, is the well-known answer, which few will dispute.

Without such capable leadership the 19th District WOULD NOT HAVE survived the hardships of the past two years.

MR. AND MRS. CITIZEN

You choose between proven success—Bankruptcy or a continuation of those policies and gains administered under the able direction of your present Congressman, Harry R. Sheppard.

Your interests, your children and your children's children—your neighbor and your friends, depend upon your vote to keep alive American traditions that none among us shall suffer want or privation.

Your vote for Harry R. Sheppard is a Vote for Human Rights—A vote to Forever Stamp Out Despotism, Greed—and Bring Relief for the Aged, Unemployed and Safety in Government Agencies and Administration.

JUDGE AMES

will speak tonight over radio station KVOE at 6:30

A CHALLENGE TO CITIZENS!

An issue has just entered this campaign which commands the notice of every citizen, because it strikes at the very integrity of our superior court.

Judge H. G. Ames has been attacked in an appeal to orange growers of the county, because he released a group of Mexicans arrested after the citrus strike riots of 1936.

Judge Ames released those Mexicans because the prosecutor failed to supply evidence identifying them as being involved in the riots. Under the law, he had no other course. Despite popular feeling, Judge Ames upheld the law, the constitution, and his oath of office. One Mexican out of 116 was identified. He held that one.

Now, mark this! His opponent asks orange growers of the county to put him in Judge Ames' place because Judge Ames DID uphold the law, the constitution and his oath. Judge Ames' opponent, we must infer, offers to the orange growers his services as judge of superior court on the ground that he would not do as Judge Ames did. There can be no other inference.

There, citizens of Orange county, is an issue to give you pause!

It overshadows every other consideration of this campaign. It means that the honesty of our courts is met with challenge.

We, who publish this statement, are not so concerned with the action of this opponent's emissaries in tricking a Mexican CIO union into passing an endorsement of Judge Ames. This endorsement had been prepared and presented to the union by the emissaries, who then took the signed resolution for circulation among the orange growers. The Mexicans were promised copies for circulation among their friends, but still are waiting for them.

An official of the union tells, below, about the trickery. But all that is not important, beyond showing the character behind the move. It may be dismissed as, to put it politely, political diplomacy.

Nor are we especially concerned by the fact that the prosecutor who failed to supply evidence necessary to hold the Mexicans after the strike riots of 1936, and then, to cover his own inefficiency, requested Judge Ames to take the clearly unlawful step of holding the defendants on mass identification, is now the opponent who asks to be placed in Judge Ames' office. That point is of little moment, compared to the graver consideration.

What does give us deepest concern is this opponent's attitude toward the integrity of the court.

There can be no place on the bench for a judge who would court passion and prejudice; who would favor his friends; or who would lack the courage to uphold the law, come what may.

Judge Ames had the courage and the integrity to do just that—uphold the law. Orange growers of the county, who have known him many years, and who in any event are not easily misled, immediately recognized the meaning of the proposal made to them. We salute them for their clear-voiced rejection of the offer to sell judicial integrity for votes.

Such an offer means just one thing. Orange county now dares not fail to re-elect Judge H. G. Ames tomorrow!

THAT ENDORSEMENT

On October 28, two men who gave the names of Whiting and Thompson addressed a meeting of the Mexican CIO local at Delhi. Whiting having arranged an appointment. How they tricked the Mexicans into passing an endorsement of Judge Ames, which they then used on behalf of his opponent, is told in the following statement by Justo Cruz, official of the union:

About 3 years ago Mr. Whiting was manager of the Cooperative just south of Green Gables (on the corner of W. 17th and Huntington Beach boulevard). That is where I got acquainted with him. I have heard that he now lives at La Habra.

Mr. Thompson was introduced as a friend of Whiting. He asked to be allowed to speak at our union local in order to explain something about progressive candidates.

On the 28th of Oct., 1938, both came to Delhi and Mr. Thompson gave me a prepared statement endorsing Judge Ames, and I read it myself, passed it over to William Taylor, who read it to the audience.

Thompson said that Mr. Nietos and I must sign two copies, and that he would prepare several thousand copies, return them to me, and give me money to hire an automobile to go around and distribute these copies to my Mexican friends.

He has not brought any copies, and has not given me any money for the automobile expenses.

Mr. Thompson made two visits to my house prior to October 28, 1938, in order to make the appointment.

Vice President of C. I. O. 29,
